MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Lambuth University, an institution of the United Methodist Church, is to provide an affordable, church-related, person-centered, undergraduate educational experience of high quality, which emphasizes the liberal arts and sciences, professional programs designed for intellectual growth in the pursuit of meaningful employment, responsible and informed world citizenship, and Christian stewardship and service.

Lambuth University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national or ethnic origin, age, disabling condition or veteran status.

The University

Lambuth University is an independent undergraduate, church-related institution supported by the Memphis Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. Since 1843, with its beginning as Memphis Conference Female Institute, Lambuth has provided students an opportunity to use their intelligence in the service of God and humanity.

Lambuth University is located in Jackson, Tennessee, populated by about 80,000 in the metropolitan area, in the heart of West Tennessee. Jackson is easily accessible by highways Tennessee 20, U.S. 45, 70 and Interstate 40. The city of Jackson is a major commerce center for West Tennessee and has three other institutions of higher learning in addition to Lambuth, a civic center, coliseum, symphony orchestra, excellent medical facilities, AA minor league baseball, performing arts center, parks and shopping centers.

Lambuth has a limited enrollment with small classes and much responsibility for students in the areas of academic and social life. All students who enter the University are expected to support its purpose and abide by its regulations; however, students are encouraged to think for themselves, and—in the context of a world that changes each day—students have the opportunity to question, to discuss, and to bring their concerns to the faculty and administration of the University. The University recognizes that students' concerns and questions and the University's purpose are the reasons for their being at Lambuth University.

In providing an academic atmosphere for students, any institution must have a faculty who support the purpose of the University and who respond to students. Lambuth University knows that the faculty and students are the most important part of the University's existence. Even though faculty members participate in research and scholarship, their primary responsibilities are teaching and advising.

As evidence of its commitment to teaching and learning, the University has a sequence of courses required of all students. These requirements include two courses in religion; competency in certain skills such as writing, speaking, and physical education; knowledge of subject matter such as natural science, mathematics, social science, computer science or computer information systems; two interdisciplinary courses, and comprehensive evaluation at the senior level. In offering such a sequence of courses, the faculty realizes that students need more than a certain number of hours in order to be educated. As the Purpose of the University states clearly, liberal education at Lambuth involves a reaffirmation of the Wesleyan emphasis on academic excellence and faith in a world that needs freedom of inquiry, careful analysis, communication, responsibility, and service to others.

Historical Background

On December 2, 1843, the Memphis Annual Conference of the Methodist Church received a charter from the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee authorizing the establishment of a college for women to be known as the Memphis Conference Female Institute. Almost without interruption this institution served West Tennessee with an educational program for women that was widely recognized. In November, 1921, the Memphis Annual Conference voted to establish a coeducational institution of higher learning. Accordingly, the M.C.F.I. charter was amended on January 3, 1923, providing for coeducation and changing the name to Lambuth College in honor of the pioneer Methodist missionary bishop, the Reverend Walter R. Lambuth, M.D. The first building, known now as Varnell-Jones Hall, was built in 1923-24. Dr. Richard E. Womack was elected president May 12, 1924. When Dr. Womack resigned after twenty-eight years of dedicated service, Dr. Luther L. Gobbel was elected President of Lambuth and assumed his duties October 13, 1952. In June, 1962, Dr. Gobbel retired after ten years of service. On July 1, 1962, Dr. James S. Wilder, Jr. became president. After eighteen years as president, Dr. Wilder became Chancellor of the College and retired from that position in December, 1981. Dr. Harry W. Gilmer became the President of Lambuth College on June 1, 1980, and served until October, 1986. Dr. Thomas F. Boyd became President of the College in July 1987. On July 1, 1991, Lambuth College became Lambuth University. Dr. Boyd served as president until April 29, 1996. In November 1996, W. Ellis Arnold III was elected President and assumed his duties on January 1, 1997.

The Purpose of Lambuth University

As an institution of the United Methodist Church, Lambuth University recognizes the interdependence of education and religion. Lambuth, therefore, reaffirms the Wesleyan emphasis on the necessity for both academic excellence and authentic faith that issue in the highest standards of personal integrity. The University endeavors to provide a congenial atmosphere where persons of all faiths may work together for the fullest development of their total lives.

As a university committed to the liberal arts, Lambuth provides resources and encouragement for students to reach an understanding of the cultural heritage of people throughout the world that will broaden their perspectives, enrich their personalities and enable them to think and act wisely amid the complexities of the present age.

As an institution of higher learning, the University strives to be an academic community of free inquiry in which men and women may prepare for lives of leadership and service to God and humanity. It is here that students are expected to acquire certain skills and knowledge which will give them an ability to examine life critically, appreciatively and comprehensively; a competence in at least one field of knowledge which will help prepare them for a profession or vocation; and a desire to continue their search for truth and knowledge throughout life.

Scope of Service

Lambuth University is an accredited, coeducational four-year institution of liberal arts and sciences. It is the institution of higher learning for the Memphis Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church. Positively Christian in its philosophy, Lambuth endeavors to maintain an atmosphere in which persons of all faiths may pursue the truth without denominational bias.

Lambuth University offers programs of concentration in the traditional areas of the liberal arts, business and a range of other career oriented programs. Students desiring to enter agriculture, architecture, medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, nursing, medical technology, engineering, the ministry, religious education, law or other professions may secure the necessary pre-professional training at Lambuth. The University prepares students desiring to enter the teaching profession to qualify for elementary or high school state teachers' certificates.

Lambuth is an independent, non-profit institution of higher learning. The charges made directly to students represent only a portion of the total cost of instruction. The additional money is provided by the churches of the Memphis Annual Conference through the Sustaining Fund, by direct gifts from interested alumni, friends, foundations, and businesses, and by income from endowment.

Discrimination on the basis of religion, race, age, color, national origin, disability or sex is contrary to the principles to which the University is committed. Lambuth is an equal opportunity educational institution.

The Jane Hyde Scott Center for Christian Studies is an arm of Lambuth University designed to provide a vital and visible link with the United Methodist Churches of the Memphis Annual Conference.

The University's various academic and institutional resources are utilized to assist the churches of the Annual Conference in meeting their spiritual, missional and program needs.

Current programs include:

- Spiritual renewal for clergy
- Travel-study programs abroad
- Seminars and training sessions for clergy and laity
- Continuing education for various ministries
- Training and skill development for church staff personnel

Under the supervision of the Vice President for Church Relations at Lambuth University in consultation with the Office for Pastoral Formation and the Conference Council on Ministries, the Center seeks to strengthen relationships with the United Methodist Church, its people, and its ministries. The Center is privately funded through the gifts and donations of individual and corporate donors.

Accreditation

Lambuth University is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097; telephone number 404-679-4501) to award Bachelor level degrees. The University is approved by the University Senate, the official accrediting agency of The United Methodist Church, and by the Board of Education of the State of Tennessee for training of elementary and secondary teachers. Lambuth is also a member of the American Council on Education, Council of Independent Colleges, Council of Protestant Colleges and Universities, National Association of Schools and Colleges of The United Methodist Church, Tennessee College Association, Tennessee Council of Private Colleges, and the Tennessee Independent College Fund.

The Campus

Since its first days as a co-educational institution in 1923-24, Lambuth University has grown from a single building to a beautiful 50 acre campus. Located on the west side of Lambuth Boulevard in a residential section of Jackson, the campus is characterized by stately Georgian Revival buildings connected by shaded walkways and spacious lawns.

Varnell-Jones Hall, erected in 1923-24, contains administrative offices, Wisdom Parlor, classrooms, and faculty offices. In 1960, this building was named the Amos W. Jones Memorial Hall in memory of Dr. Amos W. Jones who served as president of the institution from 1853-1878 and 1880-1892. In 1998, this building was renamed Varnell-Jones Hall to honor Jeanne and Henry Varnell, who have long been dedicated leaders and supporters of Memphis Conference causes, including many years of service on the governing boards of United Methodist institutions. Dr. Jeanne Varnell was the first woman chair of the Board of Trustees at Lambuth University.

Richard E. Womack Memorial Chapel, completed in 1957 and occupying a commanding position at the center of the quadrangle, emphasizes the centrality of religion in the life of the University. Members of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Memphis Conference made the first contribution toward the cost of the structure. The chapel is adaptable and is used for worship, drama, musical performances, and convocations. The fine-arts wing of the chapel contains music studios, practice rooms, rehearsal rooms, classrooms and faculty offices.

Luther L. Gobbel Library was first occupied in the fall of 1961. The growing book, periodical, and reference collections are housed on four spacious floors with a present collection of over 190,000 items. The building also contains offices, a treasure room, and a United States Government Documents Depository.

Wilder Union, completed in 1966, serves as a center for student activities. In addition to the J. A. Williamson Dining Hall, the Eagle's Nest, the Wellness Center, the Blue and White Bookstore, the post office, the Jack Morris Ballroom, and the F. W. Hamilton Room, the Union houses a band rehearsal hall, the Learning Enrichment Center, the Media Center, the Career Development Center, the Testing Services Office, and the Student Development Office. The Union is also home to the Offices of Public Safety, Residential Living, Student Activities, Student Government, Multicultural Affairs, Health Services, the Wellness Center, the Dean of Students, and the Student Organization Space (S.O.S.).

Joe Reeves Hyde Science Hall, opened in 1967, contains a computer center, an observatory, greenhouse and other facilities for teaching biology, chemistry, mathematics, physics, and astronomy. The Department of Education is located on the top floor.

M. D. Anderson Planetarium is located adjacent to the J. R. Hyde Science Hall. The planetarium seats 76 people and projects 2,000 stars on a ten meter dome.

Oxley Biological Field Station, located at Eva, Tennessee, on the grounds of Lakeshore United Methodist Assembly, is a facility for the study of plant and animal life in their natural habitat.

Athletic Center, first occupied in 1969, is an ultra-modern structure of 85,000 square feet. It contains an A.A.U. regulation swimming pool, varsity gymnasium, an auxiliary gym, handball court, weight room, gymnastics room, and other facilities for a complete physical education and intramural athletic program. Classrooms and faculty offices, training rooms and first aid room complete the complex.

Hamilton Theatre for the Performing Arts was renovated in 1999. It houses a fully equipped 250 seat Main Stage theatre with a convenient Scene Shop near the stage, and an Actors Greenroom with makeup and dressing facilities. Also in the complex are the Video Studio, which is complete with state-of-the-art camera and recording equipment, and a Communications Resource and Theatrical Design Center.

Carney-Johnston Hall, completed in 1967, is a three and one-half story structure composed of carpeted four-women suites and is home for 200 students.

Harris Hall, residence hall for men, was first occupied in the fall of 1961, and accommodates 108 students. It consists of four floors containing bedrooms with connecting baths, lounges, and laundry room.

Oxley Square, an apartment-style complex, consists of four residences—the Dawson House, the Henley House, the Loeb House and the Whetstone House. Selection of residents is based on scholarship and good social standing.

Spangler Hall, a coed residence hall, was first occupied in the fall of 1959 and accommodates 114 students. It consists of four floors containing bedrooms with connecting baths, lounges, and laundry room.

Sprague Hall was erected in 1953 and serves as a residence hall for 115 men. It consists of three floors containing bedrooms, parlors, lounges, and other conveniences for comfortable living. The ground floor in the western half of the building provides facilities for the Human Ecology program, including a food laboratory, clothing/textiles lab, lecture room, and a dining room.

Epworth Hall, constructed as a men's dormitory in 1929-30, has been renovated to serve as the offices for the Conference Council of the Memphis Annual Conference, United Methodist Church.

The Christian Life Center. This converted private residence is provided for the assistant chaplain. Its role is primarily to supply a parsonage atmosphere for the campus.

The Multicultural Center is located at 312 Maple Street and serves as a fellowship space for students who seek a multicultural experience and who seek to share their culture with others. It is also used as a meeting place for the minority student organizations on campus. The Center houses books, videos, and other materials that pertain to different ethnic groups.

Human Ecology-Visual Art Complex, located on King Street, is made up of three buildings containing Human Ecology and Visual Art studios and a lecture room. In addition, a Human Ecology Foods lab and a Textiles lab are located across the street in Sprague Hall.

Dunlap-Williams Log House Museum, an original log structure from the early 19th century, was reconstructed on the Lambuth Campus and serves as a permanent museum for pioneer and colonial artifacts, antiques and memorabilia.

President's Home. The President's home is located at 28 Northwood Avenue. It was purchased by the University in 1980.

An Invitation. You are invited to visit Lambuth University on one of our "preview" days or at a time arranged especially for you by the Office of Admissions. During a campus visit you have an opportunity to meet our faculty, students, admissions staff, coaches, Director of Financial Aid or others you feel could answer your questions. To make arrangements for your visit and tour of the campus contact the Office of Admissions, Lambuth University, Jackson, Tennessee 38301. Phone: (901) 425-2500 or 1-800-LAMBUTH.

Academic Program

I. Degrees and Majors

Lambuth University offers the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Business Administration, Bachelor of Music, and Bachelor of Science. All degrees require the completion of Lambuth Core Requirements, a Major and a Minor. Additional requirements specific to the Bachelor of Business Administration and the Bachelor of Music Degrees may be found under the Department of Business Administration and Department of Music respectively. An additional Lambuth Core Requirement for the Bachelor of Arts Degree is the completion of the second year of a foreign language. International students seeking the Bachelor of Arts Degree may, through permission of the Academic Dean, satisfy this requirement by completing English 10A9 and 10B9, and the English sequence of the Lambuth Core Requirements. Students majoring in Communications, English, Foreign Language, International Studies, Religion, Theatre and Visual Art with Art History or Studio Art Concentration must fulfill requirements of the Bachelor of Arts Degree. Majors in Biology, General Business, Chemistry, Computer Information Systems, Exceptional Learning, History, Human Ecology, Interdisciplinary Studies, Mathematics, Music, Physical Education, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology, Speech and Hearing Therapy and Visual Art are offered under the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science Degrees.

II. Graduation Requirements

Students are required to earn a minimum of 128 semester hours with a minimum grade point average of 2.0 on all work attempted, a 2.0 GPA on all work attempted at Lambuth, and a 2.0 GPA in the major and the minor requirements taken at Lambuth, and on all requirements in the major and the minor. The last sixty hours must be earned at a four-year college or university, and the last thirty-two semester hours (exclusive of any extra-institutional credit awarded by Lambuth) must be earned in residence at Lambuth. The following earned courses and requirements apply to all Lambuth graduates:

A. Lambuth Core Requirements

1. FRS 1001 (required of entering freshmen) 1 hour
2. English 1013, 1023 (prerequisite to all English courses beyond the 1000 level) and one additional English course 9 hours
3. Religion 6 hours
(at least 3 hours must be in courses OTHER than REL 1053, 1913-23, 2703, 2913-23, 3333, 3613, and 4703)
4. Biology, Chemistry, Physics, or Physical Science 8 hours
5. Communications 2003 3 hours
6. Mathematics 1113 or 1133 or above 3 hours

7. Computer Science or Computer Information Systems 3 hours
8. Two Physical Education courses, one of which must be in leisure time or with emphasis on an individual skill 2 hours
9. One Social Science course 3 hours
(from ECO 2033, 2043, HIS 1013, 1023, 1313, 1323, HLT 2513, HME 2513, POL 2013W, 2213, PSY 2013, 2023, SOC 2113, 2123, or 2513.)
10. Two writing courses (one must be 3000 or 4000 level) both outside major department. 6 hours
11. Two interdisciplinary courses 6 hours
 - a. One Junior-level (3000) interdisciplinary course (required research in library and required use of Media Center)
 - b. One Senior-level (4000) interdisciplinary course (required criticism of technology)

For a student whose major or minor is not in Sociology, Psychology, or Political Science, at least two courses from the required Writing Courses or Interdisciplinary Courses must be in courses which include one or more of these disciplines. Currently, this requirement is fulfilled by JRS 3003W and SRS 4003 required in the Lambuth Core. Further, JRS 3003W satisfies the upper division writing requirement (see Number 10).

B. Major (see departmental requirements). A minimum of fifteen semester hours in the major must be 3000 or 4000 level courses with at least nine of these hours taken at Lambuth. The maximum number of credits for each major is sixty hours. A major normally consists of between thirty and sixty hours in one discipline. In general, a major can be defined as a primary field of study which has breadth and depth.

C. Area of Concentration. An Area of Concentration normally consists of between nineteen and twenty-nine hours in a primary field of study. The Area of Concentration may be designed to intensify a specialty within the major.

D. Minor. A minimum of eighteen hours in one discipline with at least six hours on the 3000 or 4000 level taken at Lambuth. Some disciplines specify courses in the minor; others do not. A student may choose a Special Minor consisting of nine hours each in two disciplines with at least six hours on the 3000 or 4000 level taken at Lambuth. The Special Minor requires approval of a faculty member from each of the disciplines represented and by the appropriate School Dean(s). The Minor should be declared and approved by the time students have accumulated 92 credit hours or by the time students are within one year of graduation.

E. Comprehensive Examination. All students must complete successfully a comprehensive examination or its equivalent in their major field of study.

F. Application For A Degree. Each candidate for a degree must apply for the degree by November 1 of the academic year of graduation. This date applies to candidates who plan to complete their degrees in May Term or Summer Term. December graduates must apply by June 1 of the year of graduation. Participation in graduation exercises is a requirement for a degree at Lambuth unless in absentia is granted by the Academic Dean. Application is to be made in the Registrar's Office. Students are required to pay the graduation fee whether participating in the graduation exercises or not.

III. Organization

For administrative purposes, departments and areas of major study are arranged by related fields into four Schools. Major requirements and special areas of concentration are listed under departments.

A. School of Arts and Communication—Dr. Lawrence Allen Ray, Dean

1. Visual Art
 - a. Art History

 - 1. Biology
 - 2. Chemistry and Physical Science
 - 3. Health, Physical Education and Recreation
 - 4. Mathematics, Computer Science, Physics

Special Programs

1. Honors. Honors study is available in most departments for students having a cumulative GPA of 3.25 or higher by the middle of their junior year. Honors consists of the following eight hour sequence of research or the equivalent over the last three semesters of study in a particular discipline:

- Honors I. Two hours credit. Spring Term, Junior year.
- Honors II. Two hours credit. Fall Term, Senior year.
- Honors III. Four hours credit. Spring Term, Senior year.

Students completing this sequence are graduated “in honors.”

2. Lambuth Scholar. Each school may select two Lambuth Scholars, seniors who receive credit for course work but who meet requirements in a more independent manner than tests and attendance. Students satisfying these requirements are graduated as “Lambuth Scholars.”

3. Adult Learner. Lambuth University attempts to meet the special needs of some students by offering an Adult Learner Grant. An Adult Learner is a student who has graduated from high school at least eight years prior to enrolling at Lambuth. Those qualifying as an Adult Learner will receive reduced tuition charges.

4. Evening Student. A schedule of evening classes is offered throughout the year to serve those students who work full-time and cannot attend regular day classes. Students may be able to complete requirements for graduation by attending evening classes. Those qualifying as an Evening Student will receive reduced tuition charges.

5. Three-Year Residence Program. Students who wish to enter an accredited professional school (medicine, engineering, etc.) at the end of their junior year may receive a degree from Lambuth by completing the Lambuth Core, major and minor requirements, GPA requirements, 96 semester hours, and by transferring 32 hours from the professional school eight of which, with departmental approval, may be used to meet Lambuth requirements not otherwise completed. A letter of intent must be filed in the Academic Dean’s office the middle of the Junior year. This letter begins the degree audit, designation of courses transferable from the professional school, appropriate signatures to approve the program, and arrangements with the Registrar to carry the files, receive the professional school transcript, and arrange an anticipated Lambuth graduation date.

6. Teacher Education. The Lambuth program in Teacher Education meets licensure requirements for elementary, middle grades, secondary, and special education. Courses in the Lambuth Core Requirements, Professional Education and Subject Matter and Supplemental Areas meet the requirements of the State of Tennessee.

7. Special Major. The Special Major Program is designed for those students who discover that none of the established majors fits their needs. Students who want to enter this program should make application to the Academic Dean by submitting a proposal for the Special Major. The proposal should include (1) a faculty advisory committee, (2) course work in two or more disciplines, with a minimum of forty semester hours, and (3) completion or plans for completion of University requirements. Such students should submit a proposal prior to attaining senior standing and no later than two semesters before graduation.

8. Independent Study and Course Taught Tutorially. With the instructor's recommendation and approval by the appropriate School Dean and Department Chair, students may take a course tutorially (T-course) or do an independent study. An independent study, for which most departments have an appropriate number, is a course not listed in the Catalog. A tutorial course is a course listed in the Catalog but not available because of the schedule. Students are limited to one independent study or one tutorial course per term and no more than three independent studies and three tutorial courses overall.

9. Lambuth at Oxford, England. The Lambuth at Oxford Program offers students the opportunity to study at the oldest and most venerated university in England and to travel extensively throughout Europe. The Oxford Program is an annual eight-week academic program at Westminster College, Oxford, England. During the months of May and June, Lambuth students take two classes and receive six hours of undergraduate credit. Beyond their course work, students have the opportunity to attend plays staged by the Royal Shakespeare Company. Students can also attend performances at the Globe. Supplementary to weekend travel throughout England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales, participants in the program have a ten-day period to travel on the continent. Students interested in participating in the Lambuth at Oxford Program should contact program director Dr. Robin Rash in Varnell-Jones 320-A; phone: 901/425-3246; e-mail: rash@lambuth.edu.

Academic Standards

This catalog contains the policies, standards, and courses by which entering students fulfill academic requirements. Students who entered and were classified under the academic requirements of previous catalogs may complete graduation requirements which were applicable at the time if the degree is conferred within five years of entering Lambuth University. The final responsibility for fulfilling requirements for all degrees rests upon the individual students.

1. Classification of Students

Freshmen: Those who have earned fewer than 28 semester hours.

Sophomores: Those who have earned 28-59 semester hours.

Academic Program

Juniors: Those who have earned 60-91 semester hours.

Seniors: Those who have earned at least 92 semester hours.

Special: Those who are not seeking a degree at Lambuth.

2. Numbering System: Freshman level courses are numbered 1000-1999; sophomore level, 2000-2999; junior level, 3000-3999; and senior level, 4000-4999. Lower division courses are numbered 1000-2999; upper division courses are numbered 3000-4999. The fourth digit of the course number normally indicates the amount of credit hours unless the catalog states otherwise. Course numbers with a "W" indicate a writing course. Courses listed as "as needed" are offered by departmental determination. Course numbers beginning with a zero indicate courses for which only institutional credit is given. These courses are included in the GPA calculations, semester and cumulative totals but do not carry graduation credit and may not be used for a major, minor, or Lambuth Core requirement.

3. Grading, Quality Points, Grade Point Average, Audit, Pass/Fail Option

Grade	Explanation	Quality Points per Credit Hours
A	Excellent	4
B	Good	3
C	Average	2
D	Poor	1
F	Failure, No Credit Earned	0
I(A,B,C,D,F)	Incomplete	4,3,2,1,0
NG	No Grade, No Hours Attempted or Earned	0

The grade of I is given only in exceptional cases. The I is issued with a letter grade (ID) indicating the grade earned if the work is not completed by the time set by the instructor but no later than the sixth week of the next regular semester. All I grades must have approval of the appropriate School Dean and Department Chair. Juniors and seniors may take one course each term on a Pass/Fail basis, not to exceed four courses. This option is to be declared at registration. Changes thereafter must be approved by the Academic Dean. These courses, for which graduation credit may be earned, must be electives outside the major, minor and Lambuth Core requirements and require the instructor's permission. (Veterans see Veterans Education Benefits.) Permission to audit (AU) a course is given by the instructor if space is available. Course requirements for audit must be agreed upon by the instructor and the student. Audit courses do not count toward computation of full-time status. Grade Point Average (GPA) is determined by dividing the number of quality points earned by the number of credit hours attempted. Instructors, with the permission of the Academic Dean, may inform students that their final grade will be an F in any course at any time. Courses so affected may not be dropped after the drop period. This action may be appealed to the Academic Dean. In 1993 pluses and minuses were approved to be added to the existing grading system but without numerical value.

4. Academic Honors. To be eligible for Dean's List honors, students must have a 3.5 GPA or higher at the regularly scheduled time for posting final grades at each semester's end and receive credit for at least twelve semester hours work during the semester. Students otherwise on academic probation are ineligible. At graduation, students with a cumulative GPA of 3.25 will graduate cum laude; those with a cumulative GPA of 3.5 will graduate magna cum laude; those with a cumulative GPA of 3.85 will graduate summa cum laude. Those students earning credits at other institutions are eligible for these awards if both the Lambuth GPA and the overall GPA meet the requirements for honors at Lambuth.

5. Course Load. Sixteen hours per term constitute a normal course load. Full-time students are those who take a minimum of twelve semester hours during a regular term. Part-time students are those who take fewer than twelve semester hours during a regular term. Six hours during a regular term constitutes half-time enrollment. For financial aid purposes, a total of twelve hours for all summer terms inclusive is full-time enrollment and six hours for all summer terms inclusive is half-time enrollment. Students may not take more than six hours in any one summer term or five hours in May term. In order to carry more than sixteen hours in a regular term, students must fulfill the following requirements:

Fall and Spring Semesters

GPA	HOURS
2.2 or less	12-16
2.3-2.4	12-17
2.5-2.9	12-18, Advisor's approval to take 18
3.0 or above	19-21, Advisor's and School Dean's approval to take above 18

Students should be aware that certain insurance benefits are contingent upon their enrollment as a full-time student. Further, changing status from full-time to part-time during or between academic terms may affect those benefits. Students are advised to check with their insurance carriers.

Summer Sessions

Students must have permission of their school Dean to take more than five hours in May or 18 hours in the Summer with no more than six in any one session.

6. Repeated Courses. Students are encouraged to repeat courses that have been failed as soon after the failure as possible. Any course may be repeated unless the privilege is denied by the Academic Dean. Lambuth accepts the highest grade earned. (Veterans see Veterans Education Benefits.)

7. Course Changes. Within the period of full registration, students may make changes in their schedules in consultation with their advisor. These changes will not appear on the Lambuth transcript. After the last day of registration, no courses may be added. Thereafter, courses may be dropped in consultation with the advisor until the drop period is over (see calendar). These courses will show on the Lambuth transcript as a "W." No refund will be made for courses dropped after the refund period (see section on "Refunds" in catalog). After the drop period, only in exceptional circumstances can courses be dropped after approval by

(1) the advisor, (2) the instructor, and (3) the Academic Dean. There is a $15.00 fee for all course changes.

8. Academic Discipline.

a. Good Academic Standing. Minimum standards for good academic standing:

Credit Hours Earned	Semester/Cumulative GPA
0-27 (Freshman)	1.75
28-59 (Sophomore)	1.90
60-91 (Junior)	2.00
92 or more (Senior)	2.00

b. Academic Probation. Freshmen having less than 1.75 GPA and those attaining sophomore status having less than 1.90 GPA in any term or cumulative for all terms, those attaining junior and senior status having less than 2.00 in any term or cumulative for all terms, will be placed on academic probation. Academic probation is noted on Lambuth's permanent student academic record. (Veterans see Veterans Education Benefits.)

c. Academic Suspension. Students who fail 50% or more of their courses in two consecutive terms or who have been placed on academic probation and fall below the minimum standard for good academic standing in the immediately following regular semester for which they enroll will be placed on academic suspension unless mitigating circumstances occur as determined by appropriate Lambuth officials. This placement means that the student cannot continue to attend Lambuth and may not be readmitted until the expiration of at least one regular semester. Incoming transfer students are subject to the same academic probation regulations as Lambuth students (see a.), and those who are admitted under these regulations are subject to suspension after one regular semester at Lambuth. Appeals of suspension must be made in writing to the Academic Dean. Students who have served their suspensions must apply for readmission with the Dean of Records. Students suspended for the second time will be excluded. Appeals of exclusion must be in writing to the Academic Dean. The University will not accept hours earned at another institution while students are on academic suspension. Any such work taken may be offered as evidence of improved academic performance and may, under special circumstances or under appeal, be accepted by the Admissions Committee. Lambuth reserves the right to suspend or exclude, at any time, students whose academic performance or action, in the opinion of the Admissions Committee, warrants such suspension. Suspensions and readmissions by virtue of appeal appear on Lambuth's permanent student academic record.

9. Social Suspension/Exclusion. The University reserves the right to suspend or to exclude at any time students whose attitude, conduct, or academic standing is not in keeping with Lambuth's purpose and standards. In such case financial charges will not be refunded and neither Lambuth nor its officers will be under any liability for such suspension or exclusion. Students who are socially suspended or excluded preceding the drop date will withdraw from all courses. Students who are socially suspended or excluded after the drop date, at the discretion of the Student Affairs Committee, will be administratively withdrawn from classes and receive

“W” grades. The social disciplinary process is found in the Student Handbook. The academic process is found in number eight.

10. Enrollment at Another Institution. Once students enroll at Lambuth they must have their School Dean’s permission to enroll at another institution if they intend to transfer credit toward a Lambuth degree. Students may also receive permission from the Dean of Records for special circumstances.

11. Class Attendance. Lambuth University affirms the relationship between class attendance and academic performance; hence, students are required to attend all classes. If the academic standing of a student is affected by absenteeism, the instructor will notify, in writing, the student and the Vice President for Student Development. Students are accountable for every class meeting of every course for which they are enrolled. All absences, whether for personal reasons or for official university functions, are subject to this accountability. Whenever it is necessary for a student to be absent from class for any reason whatsoever, it is the responsibility of the student to consult with the instructor prior to class and to make up the work missed. In an emergency, absences must be explained when a student returns to class. Students may not be penalized for absences incurred for official university-sponsored activities, sponsored trips, and athletic contests. Instructors may assign reasonable and relevant compensatory work for absences.

12. Withdrawal. Students withdrawing from courses or from Lambuth during any term must make application in the Registrar’s Office. No student may receive “W” grades until the application is completed and returned to the Registrar’s Office. Students may not withdraw from courses or from Lambuth after the drop date and receive “W” grades without permission from the Academic Dean. All students planning not to return for the following regular term must have an interview with their advisors, the Director of Student Success and Retention, the Dean of Students, and the Director of Scholarships and Financial Aid.

13. Transfer Credit. Within the 128 semester hours required for graduation, Lambuth University requires a minimum of 60 semester hours of work earned at a four-year accredited institution. The last 32 hours must be earned at Lambuth University for a Lambuth degree. Lambuth students classified as a junior or senior may not receive credit for hours earned at two-year institutions.

14. Correspondence and Extension Courses. Correspondence and extension courses may be applied toward graduation only in exceptional cases and must be approved in advance by the Academic Dean. No more than the equivalent of eight semester hours or two courses may be applied in any circumstance.

15. Cross-Campus Registration. Enrolled Lambuth students may take classes at Freed-Hardeman University and Union University through a cross-campus registration agreement with those institutions. Generally, this registration is for emergency situations only, and arrangements must be made in the Office of Registrar. Approval of the appropriate School Dean is required.

16. Additional Degrees. Students wishing to earn a second bachelors degree at Lambuth may do so by earning 32 additional hours beyond that required for the first degree, by offering an additional major and fulfilling other requirements appropriate to that degree.

17. Class Rank. Lambuth does not compute rank within classes nor rank graduating students. However, for certain students establishing a specific need (employment or graduate school, etc.) a graduating rank can be provided. This computation is made by comparing the requesting student's cumulative GPA with all other graduates who have an identical completion date combined with all graduates from the two immediately prior completion periods. Lambuth has three completion periods: Fall, Spring, and Summer. The Dean of Records has sole responsibility for computing graduating class rank.

Departmental Offerings and Course Descriptions

Professor William James Davis, Chairperson
Assistant Professors: Ashbaugh, Cook

Major Requirements:

Chemistry 1314, 1324	8 hours
Mathematics 1113	3 hours
Biology	36-37 hours
Including Biology 4014W, 4114, and 4731

Minor Requirements:

A minor or special minor in Biology must include eight hours of course work in the department at the 3000 or 4000 level.

1014, 1024. Survey of Biology. A broad study of concepts in the biological sciences designed to meet the core requirement for non-majors. The scientific method, biological diversity, ecological interactions, and organismal structure and function will be covered.

1314, 1324. General Biology. An in-depth study of the principles of biology designed for science majors and pre-professionals in the health fields. The course emphasizes metabolism, growth, reproduction, inheritance, structure, function, ecology and classification of living organisms.

2014. Human Anatomy and Physiology I. A broad study of the basic structures and functions of the human body. Cells, tissues, and nervous, endocrine and skeletomuscular systems are emphasized. Three periods and one two-hour laboratory per week. (Not for Major credit.) Prerequisite: BIO 1014 or equivalent. (Fall)

2024. Human Anatomy and Physiology II. A continuation of BIO 2014 emphasizing cardiovascular, respiratory, digestive, urinary and reproductive systems. Three periods and one two-hour laboratory per week. (Not for Major credit.) Prerequisite: BIO 2014 or equivalent. (Spring)

2054. Environmental Science. A general study of the environment and human impact on the environment. Basic ecology, human population, and environmental issues relating to pollution, biodiversity, and natural resources will be considered. Prerequisite: BIO 1014 and 1024 or BIO 1314 and 1324 or permission of instructor.

2114. Invertebrate Zoology. The taxonomy, ecology and natural history of the invertebrates. Prerequisite: BIO 1314, 1324 or equivalent.

2214. Vertebrate Zoology. The taxonomy, ecology and natural history of the vertebrates. Three classroom periods and one two-hour laboratory per week. Prerequisite: BIO 1314, 1324 or equivalent.

2314. Comparative Vertebrate Anatomy. A comparative study of the organ systems of vertebrates. Two periods and two two-hour laboratory periods per week. Prerequisite: BIO 1314, 1324, or equivalent. (Spring, odd years)

2414. Field Botany. The study of plants in their natural environment. Emphasis will be on field identification of native species but consideration will also be given to plant classification, adaptations and ecology. The course will include two mandatory weekend field trips. Prerequisite: BIO 1314 and 1324.

2701-4. Special Topics in Biology.

3323. Organic Evolution. A study of the theoretical and empirical framework of evolutionary biology. The major evolutionary processes and their effects on genetic variation of organisms are emphasized. Prerequisite: BIO 1314 and 1324 or permission of instructor.

3414. Cell Biology. A study of cells as the basic unit of life. Topics include the structural and functional units of cells, nutrition and metabolism, growth and differentiation, and cell division. Prerequisite: BIO 1014, 1024 and CHM 1314, 1324 or equivalent.

3514. Comparative Embryology. A comparative study of development in vertebrate embryos. Fertilization, cleavage, formation of germ layers and tissue differentiation are stressed. Three periods and one two-hour laboratory per week. Prerequisite: BIO 1314, 1324 or equivalent. (Spring, even years)

3614. Microbiology. An introduction to methods, principles, morphology, physiology and classification of bacteria and related forms. Two lectures and two two-hour laboratory periods per week. Prerequisite: CHM 1314, 1324 and BIO 1314, 1324, or equivalent.

3714. Plant Physiology. A basic study of plant function. Metabolic processes, development, and environmental physiology of flowering plants will be emphasized. Prerequisite: BIO 1314, 1324 or equivalent and CHM 1314, 1324 or equivalent.

4014W. General Ecology. A basic study of the interrelationships of organism and environment. Three lectures and one three hour lab per week. Prerequisite: BIO 1314, 1324, CHM 1314, 1324 or their equivalent and BIO 3214 or 3224. (Fall, odd years)

4114. Genetics. A study of the principles of heredity and molecular genetics. Prerequisite: BIO 1314, 1324 or equivalent and CHM 1314, 1324. (Fall, even years)

4501-4. Independent Study. Supervised independent study of a biological problem or topic. One to four hours credit. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor.

4514. Vertebrate Physiology. A basic study of systemic animal function, with particular emphasis on mammalian systems. Three periods one three-hour laboratory per week. Prerequisite: BIO 1314, 1324, and CHM 1314, 1324 or their equivalent. (Fall, odd years)

4701-4. Special Topics in Biology. An advanced study in a designated area of biology. Topics announced each time the course is offered. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor. One to four hours credit.

4731. Seminar. Seminar in selected topics in Biology. Reports will be presented by the participants on current research in the selected topics. Required of all majors for graduation. To be taken second term of the senior year.

The department also maintains an affiliation with the Gulf Coast Research Laboratory, Ocean Springs, Mississippi. A number of marine biology courses are offered there each summer under the auspices of the University of Southern Mississippi. These courses, with prior departmental approval, may be transferred to Lambuth and counted toward the major in Biology. Additional information concerning this affiliation can be obtained from members of the Department of Biology.

School of Business, Education and Social Sciences

Business Administration

Associate Professor Wilburn Lane, Chairperson

Associate Professors: Faught, Peters

Assistant Professor: Manner

Instructors: Wamwara-Mbugua, Shanklin

The Department of Business Administration offers the Bachelor of Business Administration degree with a major in Business Administration with concentrations in either Accounting, Management, or Marketing. The Department also offers the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees with majors in Computer Information Systems and General Business. All department majors must take CIS 1503 as the computer course required in the Lambuth Core.

Business Administration major requirements (all concentrations):

Accounting 2113, 2123 Financial & Managerial Accounting	6 hours
Economics 2033, 2043 Macroeconomics, Microeconomics	6 hours
Business 2213W Communications in Business	3 hours
Business 3013 Business Statistics	3 hours
Marketing 3033 Principles of Marketing	3 hours
Management 3093 Principles of Management	3 hours
Economics 3313 Financial Management	3 hours
Business 4313 or 4323 Legal Environment of Business or Business Law	3 hours
Management 4923W Strategic Management	3 hours

Concentration requirements:

Accounting: ACC 3113, 3123, and five courses from ACC 3103, 3133, 3153, 4113, 4123, 4133, 4143, 4153, and 4163.

Management: MGT 4213, 4413, 4713, and at least four courses from ACC 3133, 4123, BUS/ECO 3023, BUS 4323, MGT 3243, CIS 4553, and 4653.

Marketing: BUS 3023, MKT 3173, 3183, 3393W, 4023W, 4633, and 4643W.

Computer Information Systems and General Business major requirements:

Computer Information Systems: ACC 2113, CIS 2503, 3023, 3513, 3543, 3563, 4553, 4653, 4813, CSC 1253 and either CSC 1263, 2253 or 3013 and three courses from ACC 2123, MKT 3033, ACC 4123, MGT 3093, BUS 2213W, 3013, 4313, 4323, and ECO 2033, 2043.

General Business: BUS 2053, ACC 2113, 2123, BUS 3013, ECO 3313, MKT 3033, MGT 3093, 4923W, BUS 2213W, ECO 2033, 2043, and BUS 4313 or 4323 and at least four hours of business electives.

Minor requirements:

Accounting: ACC 2113, 2123, 3113, 3123, and two courses from ACC 3103, 3133, 3153, 4113, 4123, 4133, 4143, 4153, and 4163.

Computer Information Systems: ACC 2113, CIS 2503, 3023, 3543, CSC 1253, and one course from CIS 3513, 3563, 4553, and 4653.

Economics: ECO 2033, 2043, 3013, 3313, and two courses from ECO 3023, 4123, and 4043.

General Business: ACC 2113, BUS 2053, 3013, 4313, MGT 3093, MKT 3033.

Industrial Management: MGT 3093, 3243, 4713, and three courses from ACC 3133, 4123, BUS 3023, CIS 4653, ECO 3313, and INM 3253, 3353, 4623, 4753.

Management: BUS 3013, MGT 3093, 4213, 4413, and two courses from ACC 4123, BUS 3023, 4313, 4323, ECO 3313, MGT 3243 and 4713.

Marketing: ECO 2043, MKT 3033, and four courses from MKT 3173, 3183, 3393W, 4023W, 4633, and 4643W.

Masters Programs in Business

Lambuth University has a cooperative arrangement with the University of Tennessee at Martin in which UTM offers Masters of Business Administration and Masters of Accountancy programs on Lambuth's campus. This program is accredited by AACSB and all of the courses for either of these degrees may be taken in Jackson. Lambuth provides classrooms and library facilities, and the University of Tennessee at Martin provides instruction for the courses. For more information on these programs, please contact the University of Tennessee at Martin's coordinator at Lambuth, Mike McCullough in room 214 of Varnell-Jones Hall. His phone number is 901/425-3350, and his e-mail address is "mccullou@lambuth.edu."

Accounting

2113. Principles of Financial Accounting. Concepts underlying the preparation of corporate financial statements. The balance sheet and income statement as conventionally reported by American corporations are studied as to the methodology for their preparation, their interpretation, and their strengths and limitation. A course designed for business administration and non-business majors. Prerequisite: Sophomore standing or permission of the instructor. (Fall)

2123. Principles of Managerial Accounting. Accounting for planning, control, and managerial decision-making; attention-directing and problem solving uses of accounting data; cost flows, production costing, cost-volume-profit analysis, operating and cash budgets, responsibility accounting, relevant costs and the contribution approach to decisions. A course emphasizing the relevance of managerial accounting concepts to modern management decisions. Prerequisite: ACC 2113 or permission of the instructor. (Spring)

2701-3. Special Topics in Accounting. (As needed)

3103. Accounting Applications for the Microcomputer. This offers the student an experience in working with accounting programs stored on disks and in making changes in previously written programs while keying them into the computer to produce accounting and business reports. Prerequisite: ACC 2113, 2123, or permission of instructor. Class size is limited. (As needed)

3113. Intermediate Accounting I. An intensive study of the body of generally accepted accounting principles concerned with the recognition and matching of revenue and expense to determine financial accounting net income and the related issues of asset measurement and valuation in external reporting. Specific areas of coverage include an analysis of balance sheet and profit and loss statements, together with the theory of valuation and presentation of the underlying accounts used in these statements. Prerequisite: ACC 2113 or permission of the instructor.

3123. Intermediate Accounting II. A continuation of Intermediate Accounting I, with a detailed study of the body of generally accepted accounting principles concerned with the measurement of liabilities and corporate shareholder equity. Theoretical implications of financial reporting are developed in relation to such topics as: bonds, leases, pensions, cash flow presentation, and disclosure in external reporting. Prerequisite: ACC 3113 or permission of the instructor.

3133. Cost Accounting. An analysis of procedures and principles of various manufacturing accounting systems will be undertaken. Cost control will be emphasized. Quantitative methods for planning and control will be studied. Prerequisite: ACC 2113 and 2123, or permission of instructor. (Fall, even years)

3153. Not-for-Profit Accounting. A study of not-for-profit or fund accounting emphasizing the funds recommended by the National Council on Government Accounting. The class will include, but not be limited to, keeping a set of books for a city for an entire year. Prerequisite: ACC 2113 and 2123, or permission of instructor. (Summer, odd years)

4113. Advanced Financial Accounting. An extensive application of accounting theory as it relates to partnerships and corporations. Partnership formation, dissolution, and liquidation will be discussed. The student will get experience in working with cost and equity methods of preparing consolidated financial statements for parent and subsidiary organizations. Prerequisite: ACC 3113 or permission of instructor. (Summer, even years)

4123. Advanced Managerial Accounting. An examination of the role of the accountant as part of management. Cost planning, cost behavior, and cost control will be studied. Capital budgeting, the making of investment decisions, and the use of quantitative decision techniques will be analyzed. Prerequisite: ACC 2113 and 2123, or permission of instructor. (Fall, odd years)

4133. Federal Tax I. A study of tax law as it applies to taxation for individuals, proprietorships, and partnerships. Prerequisite: ACC 2113 and 2123, or permission of instructor. (Fall, even years)

4153. Auditing I. A comprehensive introduction to auditing theory, standards and the application of procedures used by independent Certified Public Accountants to render an opinion on the financial statements. Coverage includes the ethical environment of the independent auditor, the nature of the auditing standards, procedures underlying the audit opinion, and the various forms of the resulting audit report. Emphasis will be on the integration of generally accepted accounting principles and the application of statistical sampling methods as they pertain to the auditing process. Case assignments reinforce the effects of auditing theory in practice. Prerequisite: ACC 3113 and 3123 or permission of instructor. (Fall, odd years)

4163. Auditing II. A continuation of an introduction to auditing theory, standards and auditing practice. Coverage includes the ethical environment of the independent auditor, the specific cycles, plans, and programs for audit field work. Additional emphasis is placed on completing the audit, as well as other auditor roles and engagements. Case assignments and a course project are provided to simulate audit planning, assessment, and strategy. Prerequisite: ACC 4153 or permission of instructor. (Spring, even years)

4501-3. Independent Study in Accounting.

Business

2053. Introduction to Business. Basic study of the nature of business in relation to the economic society in which we live. Emphasis on vocabulary of business terms, organization of business, and survey of major areas of business. Recommended for majors and non-majors. (Fall and Spring)

2213W. Communications in Business. A survey of oral and written communications in business. Areas of study include report-writing with special emphasis on technology applications. Prerequisite: CIS 1503. (See COM 2213W) (Fall and Spring)

2701-3. Special Topics in Business. (As needed)

3013. Business Statistics. Studies statistical methodology and techniques used in describing, interpreting and evaluating statistical data. Attention is given to understanding and calculating the principal measures of central tendency and dispersion, probability relationships and distributions, sampling procedures and precision, and tests for significance of sampling inferences. Prerequisite: MTH 1113 or above. (Fall and Spring)

4313. Legal Environment of Business. A survey of legal issues pertaining to the business environment including business ethics, antitrust legislation, consumer protection, bankruptcy, trusts, decedents' estates, and constitutional, administrative, employment, environmental and international law. (Fall and Summer)

4323. Business Law. Basic principles of the law of contracts. Includes law of agency, law of partnerships and corporations, and sales including transfer of title and risk of loss. (Spring)

4501-3. Independent Study in Business. For the advanced student who desires to pursue individual research in a specific area of business. The work done will be under the supervision of one or more faculty. Open only to upper division students with permission of the instructor(s). One to three credits.

4701-3. Special Topics in Business. Selected topics in the field of business which are not presently covered in existing courses. Topics are to be selected each time the course is taught. (As needed)

Computer Information Systems

1503. Survey of Business Software. This course provides a student with exposure to today's popular business productivity software, including hands-on lab exercises. Windows Word Processing, Spreadsheets, and other packages will be utilized. (Fall, Spring, and Summer)

2503. Fundamentals of Computer Information Systems. A basic course in which characteristics, capabilities, and limitations of digital computers are taught. In addition, the history of computer information systems, and the utilization of both the computer and software as key parts of business information systems are presented. (Fall)

2701-3. Special Topics in Computer Information Systems. (As needed)

3023. Operating Systems and Software Survey. Concepts of operating systems along with the management of jobs, tasks, data, and memory allocation. Also includes multi-programming concepts, time-sharing requirements, and a thorough study of the CL/400 operating system and the UNIX/LINUX platform.

3513. Fundamentals of RPG. The programming concepts and techniques of Report Program Generator, including RPG-400 and ILE. Business and industrial problem-solving is stressed. Programs will be written, corrected, and documented as part of the laboratory experience. (Spring)

3543. COBOL Programming I. A study of COBOL (Common Business Oriented Language) and its use in business in the generation of reports, statistics, and other managerial information. Students are required to write, compile, execute and document business programs in COBOL. (Fall)

3563. COBOL Programming II. Advanced topics include subprograms, sorts, searches, source statement library, and an extensive review of procedure verbs and techniques of programming in COBOL. Lab is required in which students write, execute, and document business application problems. Prerequisite: CIS 3543. (Spring)

4501-3. Independent Study in Computer Information Systems.

4553. Systems Analysis and Design. This course establishes a basic understanding of both the elements and the functions of the processes of system definition, analysis, and design. Systems, both manual and computerized, are studied in relation to the business environment. Prerequisite: CIS 3543 or instructor's permission. (Spring)

4653. Data Base Systems. A thorough study of traditional data bases, such as ACCESS and SQL, and their uses in the computerized business world.

4701-3. Special Topics in Computer Information Systems. (As needed)

4813. Concepts of Data Communication. Concepts of teleprocessing and data communications including hardware, software, methodologies, systems design, and applications. Networking utilizing microcomputer LAN's is included. Prerequisite: Permission of the instructor. (Fall, even years)

Economics

2033. Principles of Macroeconomics. The emphasis in this course is on income and employment theory. The roles of money, financial intermediation, and central banking are coordinated with the distribution of income and wealth. The causes and consequences of income, employment, and money fluctuations are explored. Theories, implementation, and effectiveness of governmental monetary and fiscal policies aimed at full employment, price stability, and growth are examined. Prerequisite: MTH 1113 or above. (Fall)

2043. Principles of Microeconomics. The emphasis in this course is on price theory—how, in our relatively free enterprise economy, prices serve to ration scarce resources through production and distribution activities to consumption, as determined by consumer choice, supply and demand conditions, market organizations, social restraints and government intervention. Prerequisite: MTH 1113 or above. (Spring)

Business

2701-3. Special Topics in Economics. (As needed)

3013. Business Statistics. Studies statistical methodology and techniques used in describing, interpreting and evaluating statistical data. Attention is given to understanding and calculating the principal measures of central tendency and dispersion, probability relationships and distributions, sampling procedures and precision, and tests for significance of sampling inferences. Prerequisite: MTH 1113 or above. (See BUS 3013) (Fall and Spring)

3313. Financial Management. Concerned with principles and practices of business finance, this course analyzes managerial means toward efficiency in the procurement and use of money to satisfy essential and competing business operations within the appropriate framework of different time dimensions. Prerequisite: ACC 2123. (Fall)

4043. Investments. After an overview of broad investment opportunities, this course focuses principally on investments in financial securities—especially stocks and bonds. Assuming the perspective of an individual investor, analysis is directed toward reconciling investment objectives with prospective gains and potential losses, all within the changing environment of financial markets, business operations, and economic conditions. Prerequisite: ECO 3313. (Spring)

4123. Money and Banking. The general natures and histories of money and banking are explained as a background for examining credit instruments and applications, money and capital markets, the Federal Reserve System and monetary policy, and the structure of commercial banking in the United States. Emphasis is on an understanding of commercial banking in general, as well as the particulars of a typical commercial bank's composition of assets and liabilities, funds management, credit extensions and investments, and operational activities and characteristics. Prerequisite: ECO 2033 and 2043. (Fall)

4501-3. Independent Study in Economics. For the advanced student who desires to pursue individual research in a specific area of economics. The work will be under the supervision of one or more members of the department. Open only to upper division students with permission of the supervising instructor. One to three credits.

4513. Consumer Economics. (See HME 4513)

4701-3. Special Topics in Economics. (As needed)

Industrial Management

2701-3. Special Topics in Industrial Management. (As needed)

3253. Industrial Safety. A study of the principles of accident prevention, analysis of accident causes, mechanical safeguards, fire prevention, housekeeping, occupational diseases, first aid, safety organization, protection equipment, and general safety principles and promotions. (As needed)

3353. Principles of Materials Management. A study of the basic principles and objectives of efficient materials management. Among the topics included are forecasting for materials management, planning materials management, basics of production and inventory control, order point and periodic control systems, analytical inventory control techniques, finding qualified suppliers, the buying process, cost reduction techniques, measuring materials management performance. (As needed)

4501-3. Independent Study in Industrial Management.

4623. Quality Control. A study of the technique of inspecting and controlling quality in production. Topics covered include the quality control process, inspection, statistical quality control, quality documentations, corrective actions, quality engineering, customer relations, zero defects, vendor quality control, configuration control, quality audits, and the cost of quality. (As needed)

4701-3. Special Topics in Industrial Management. (As needed)

4753. Motion and Time Study. A study of the standardization of work methods, methods improvements, timing of work, and use of flow process charts. Some of the topical coverage includes profitability of motion and time study, work methods design, process and analysis, activity charts, operation analysis, fundamental hand motions, human engineering, principles of motion economy, work standardization, work sampling, fatigue, and job enlargement. (As needed)

Management

2701-3. Special Topics in Management. (As needed)

3093. Principles of Management. An introduction to management including study of the basic functions of planning, organizing, staffing, directing, and controlling. (Fall and Summer)

3243. Human Resource Management. Designed to provide systemic analysis of the personnel functions in an organization. Emphasis is upon employee motivation and supervisory skills, employee selection and development, and employee incentives. Prerequisite: MGT 3093. (Spring)

4213. Organizational Theory. A study of the evolution of management theory including the classical, neoclassical, and contingency schools of thought. The principles of organizing and organizational structure and design will be covered. Prerequisite: MGT 3093. (Spring)

4413. Organizational Behavior. Designed to prepare the student to communicate effectively with employers and employees through the basic functions of staffing, directing and controlling. Prerequisite: MGT 3093. (Fall)

4501-3. Independent Study in Management.

4701-3. Special Topics in Management. (As needed)

4713. Production Management. A specialized area of management study in plant layout, planning for production, inventory control, production control, and analysis of methods. Prerequisites: ACC 2123, BUS 3013, and MGT 3093. (Spring)

4923W. Strategic Management. A course designed to present an organized, integrated approach to the managerial decision-making process. Readings, case discussions, and preparation of reports on selected subjects. Prerequisite: Senior standing, BUS 3013, MKT 3033, MGT 3093, ACC 2123, and ECO 3313. (Spring)

Marketing

2701-3. Special Topics in Marketing. (As needed)

Business

3033. Principles of Marketing. A basic course in the principles and methods of marketing and in market structures and institutions. Topics treated include marketing functions, marketing institutions, functions and modes of operation of marketing agencies, problems in creating demand, market regulation and legislation, marketing costs, and prices and price factors. Prerequisite: ECO 2033 and 2043. (Fall and Summer)

3173. Principles of Advertising. Concepts and practices of advertising and the role of advertising in society are stressed. Additional coverage includes the relation of advertising to other business activity, and the use of advertising as communication. Prerequisite: MKT 3033. (Spring)

3393W. Principles of Retailing. A study of the principles that underlie the successful operations of enterprises distributing products and services to ultimate consumers. Topics such as store location and layout, store organization, the buying function, merchandise pricing and handling, displaying and other related topics will be covered. Prerequisite: MKT 3033. (Fall)

4023W. Strategic Marketing. Study and case analysis of marketing research, product planning, costs, pricing, channels of distribution, advertising, and sales promotion. Prerequisite: MKT 3033 and MGT 3093 and senior status or permission of instructor. (Fall)

4501-3. Independent Study in Marketing.

4633. Consumer Analysis and Behavior. Designed to use an interdisciplinary approach in the study of theories and concepts that lead the consumer to final purchase decisions. Special attention will be given to the individual as he/she is influenced by internal and external forces in making marketing decisions. Prerequisite: MKT 3033. (Spring)

4643W. Marketing Research. This course covers research methodology with the emphasis on the application of social science techniques of research to marketing problems. Critical evaluation of various sources of information, research procedures, and methods of utilizing research findings is required. An individual or group research project provides practical application of the methods studied. Prerequisite: MKT 3033, BUS 3023 or ECO 3023, and ACC 2123. (Spring)

4701-3. Special Topics in Marketing. (As needed)

School of Natural and Applied Sciences

Professor David R. Hawkes, Chairperson

Assistant Professor: Moeller

Major Requirements—Chemistry:

Mathematics 2124	4 hours
Physics	8 hours
Chemistry (including CHM 3214, 3224, 3314, 3514)	36 hours

It is recommended that students planning to take graduate work in Chemistry include in the program Mathematics 3114, 4213, and German 1013 and 1023.

Physical Science

1014. Survey of Physical Science. A consideration of the basic physical and astronomical principles necessary for the understanding of today's universe. Includes laboratory experience and planetarium. Students who have had any one of the following courses or their equivalents elsewhere cannot take Physical Science 1014; Physics 2214, 2224; or Physical Science 3114 or 3124.

1024. Survey of Physical Science. A survey of chemical, geological, and meteorological principles, including concepts basic to understanding of the physical environment. Includes laboratory experience. Students who have had Physical Science 3024, 3034, Chemistry 1314, 1324 or their equivalents elsewhere cannot take Physical Science 1024.

2701-4. Special Topics in Physical Science.

3024. Earth Science. An introductory study of the earth as a planet. Matter and minerals, rocks, volcanic activity, weathering, soil water, and mass wasting are studied. Laboratory includes use of aids, rocks, and minerals.

3034. Earth Science. An introductory study of the earth and its history. Glaciers, deserts and winds, shorelines, earthquakes, the earth's interior, plate tectonics, the ocean and its evolution, mountain building and geologic time are included. Laboratory experience includes study of topographic, physiographic and geologic maps, field trips, video tapes, and a laboratory workbook.

4501-4. Independent Study in Physical Science. For the advanced student who desires to pursue an individual research project in the area of physical science.

4701-4. Special Topics in Physical Science.

Chemistry

1314, 1324. General Chemistry. A study of chemical principles and their application. Atomic theory and the structure of matter are examined in the context of chemical properties and reactions with an emphasis on quantitative relationships. Three lectures and one laboratory per week.

2014. Chemical Equilibrium. A study of the fundamentals of chemical equilibrium as it applies to chemical analysis. Includes the study of solution equilibria, acid-base theory, complex ion equilibria, and electrochemistry. Three lectures and one laboratory per week. Prerequisite: CHM 1324 and MTH 1113, or equivalent.

2214. Environmental Chemistry. Studies related to the chemistry of natural waters, the atmosphere and the soil, and how pollutants effect this balance. Prerequisite: CHM 1324 and BIO 1024.

2701-4. Special Topics in Chemistry.

3214, 3224. Organic Chemistry. A study of aliphatic and aromatic organic compounds and their derivatives. Classes of compounds, their preparation and important reactions are examined with an emphasis on structure and reaction mechanisms. Prerequisite: CHM 1324. Three lectures and one laboratory per week.

3314. Quantitative Analysis. A study of the fundamental principles involved in quantitative chemical measurements as illustrated in volumetric, gravimetric, and instrumental analysis. Prerequisite: CHM 1324 and MTH 1113. Two lectures and laboratories per week.

3323. Intermediate Inorganic Chemistry. An introduction to modern inorganic chemistry. Topics include atomic and molecular structure, bonding, periodic properties of the elements, spectroscopy and crystal field theory, organometallic chemistry and catalysis. Prerequisite: CHM 1324. Three hours of lecture per week.

3414. Bio-organic Chemistry. A study of functional groups of organic compounds. Carbohydrates, proteins, lipids, and nucleic acids will be covered. Laboratory techniques covered will be applicable to Organic Chemistry and Biochemistry. Three lectures and one laboratory per week. Prerequisites: CHM 3224.

3514. Physical Chemistry I. A study of the fundamental laws and theory of thermodynamics with applications to chemical systems. Prerequisites: CHM 1324 and MTH 2124. Three lectures and one laboratory per week.

3524. Physical Chemistry II. The study of atomic and molecular structure through quantum theory, spectroscopy, and chemical dynamics. Prerequisites: CHM 1324 and MTH 2124. Three lectures and one recitation per week.

4124. Biochemistry. A study of the chemistry and metabolism of carbohydrates, proteins, and lipids, with emphasis on the relationships of structure, function, and reaction mechanisms. Prerequisites: CHM 3224. Three lectures and one laboratory per week.

4324. Advanced Organic Chemistry. A review and extension of the facts and theories of organic chemistry with emphasis on mechanisms of reactions, stereochemistry and spectroscopy. Prerequisite: CHM 3224. Three lectures and one laboratory per week.

4501-4. Independent Study in Chemistry. Designed to meet the needs and interests of senior students majoring in chemistry. The work is independent and is selected individually. The student is expected to keep accurate records of this work and also to become acquainted with current literature in the area in which he is working.

4601-3. Research in Chemistry. The investigation of an original problem in chemistry. For chemistry majors or minors having completed three semesters of chemistry. Prerequisite: CHM 3214 or 2014.

4701-4. Special Topics in Chemistry.

School of Arts and Communication

Communications and Theatre

Associate Professor Florence H. Dyer, Chairperson
Associate Professors: Drum, Eddleman
Assistant Professor: Smith

Communications

The Bachelor of Arts in Communication offers the following emphases:

- (1) Mass Communication
- (2) Public Relations
- (3) Speech Communication Studies

Each emphasis will contain a department-approved sequence of appropriate courses.

Major Requirements: Bachelor of Arts in Communications

Communications 38 hours

1013. Survey of Mass Communication. A survey approach to the historical, theoretical, regulatory, economic, aesthetic and productional aspects of the communications media and industries. (Fall, even years)

1053. Principles of Public Relations. An introductory survey of the field of public relations, with emphases on discipline definition, historical and current theory, and the principles and practices used with general and specific audiences. (Fall, even years)

2003. Rhetoric: Principles and Practices. Upon an intensive theoretical foundation of classical-to-contemporary rhetorical principles, this course provides extensive application opportunities for practicing the art of informative and persuasive public address. Prerequisite: ENG 1013 and 1023 and at least sophomore status. (Each semester)

2113W. Media in Society. A critical study of the historical, cultural, social, political and technological factors which shape and are shaped by the mass media. (Spring, odd years)

2153W. Basic Public Relations Writing. An overview of the communication tasks public relations practitioners face and practical experience in preparing news releases and other vehicles for print and electronic media aimed at general audiences. Prerequisite: COM 1053 or departmental permission. (Spring, odd years)

2213W. Communication Techniques for the Professions. A survey of oral and written communications in business. Areas of study include report writing with special emphasis on the application letter and resume. (See BUS 2213W.)

2412. Graphic Art and Visual Communications I. Focus on lettering. In-depth study via lecture, demonstration, and experimentation of all calligraphic and typographic forms of lettering presently used by Graphic artists. Development of professional individual lettering skills. (See VRT 2412.)

2423. Phonetics, Voice and Diction. A study of the International Phonetic Alphabet and the principles of effective voice usage. Special emphasis placed on improving voice and diction characteristics through exercises in projection, articulation and pronunciation. (Each semester)

2432. Press Photography I. Study of photographic techniques emphasizing composition, use of a 35mm adjustable camera, darkroom experience in the development of film and printing procedures. Each student must furnish his own camera. (See VRT 2432.)

2503W. Journalistic Writing. An introduction to the profession of journalism and the theory and practice of gathering and writing news. Prerequisite: ENG 1013 and 1023, or Advanced Placement. (See ENG 2503W.)

2523. Practicum in Journalism. Consideration of both theoretical and practical aspects of news gathering. Lecture and laboratory sessions; basic operation of a modern daily newspaper. Typing proficiency is expected. Prerequisite: ENG 2213W and 2223W or consent of instructor. (See ENG 2523.)

2603W. Media Criticism. An evaluation of the roles and responsibilities of mass media in society and of the impact of media on individuals and society. Prerequisite: ENG 1013 and 1023 and Instructor's permission. Communication majors must register for this course as communications. (See ENG 2603W.)

2701-4. Special Topics in Communications.

3013. Media Announcing and Performance. Exploration of and exercise in the skills necessary for broadcast announcing and related media performance, with emphasis on diction and copy interpretation. Focuses include newscasting, feature narration, commercial and promotional delivery, sportscasting, etc. Prerequisite: COM 2423 or instructor permission. (Fall, odd years)

3153W. Advanced Public Relations Writing. A practical course in writing for specialized public audiences in such forms as annual reports, magazines, newsletters, and brochures, as well as preparing media kits. Prerequisite: COM 2153W. (Fall, odd years)

3223W. News Media Writing. A practical study of news and information writing for contemporary media. Application in news operations and in script preparation. (Fall, odd years)

3303W. Advertising Copy Writing. A study and practice of writing commercial, continuity and other non-news copy for contemporary media. Emphasis given to such forms as promotional material, public service announcements, commercial advertisements, press releases, etc. (Fall, even years)

3313. Oral Interpretation. A course designed to develop the art of communicating to an audience a work of literature in its intellectual, emotional and aesthetic entirety through vocal, physical and psychological performing techniques. Literary forms include prose, poetry and drama, as well as mixed forms for lecture recital, readers theatre and chamber theatre. (Fall, even years)

3323. History of American Public Address. A historical and analytical study of American rhetoric and rhetoricians, oratory and orators, from colonial to contemporary times. Emphasis placed on the relationship between the evolution of American public address and the development of American democratic and social processes. (As needed)

3412. GraphicArt and Visual Communications II. Continuation of 2412. (See VRT 3412.)

3422. GraphicArt and Visual Communications III. Continuation of 3412. (See VRT 3422.)

3432. Press Photography II. Continuation of 2432. (See VRT 3432.)

3442. Press Photography III. Continuation of 3432. (See VRT 3442.)

3523W. Research Methods in Communications. An introduction to the methodological procedures employed in the strategies of research design and data collection. Sample design, questionnaire and survey construction and other quantitative and qualitative methodologies of social research are investigated.

4013. Radio Production. A study of the theories, techniques and tools of radio production. Practical application in creating radio programming, including music, talk, discussion, interview, documentary and special events programs. (Fall)

4023. Television Production. An overview study of the theories, tools and techniques of video production and studio operations. Practical application in the use of small-format cameras, sound, lighting and recording. (Spring, even years)

4103. Media Programming and Management. An analysis of the functional operations of media industries, broadcast and related stations, cable and emerging media companies, and other allied businesses. Emphasis is placed upon program formats, content and techniques and upon managerial concerns such as personnel, promotion and sales operations, and departmental functions. (Fall, odd years)

4113. Interpersonal and Organizational Communication. A study of the nature of communication and communication systems within organizations. Application techniques in interpersonal communication in dyadic and group subsystems. (Spring, even years)

4223W. Communications Law and Regulations. A fundamental but comprehensive study of the legal and regulatory framework within which the communications industries work. Media include radio and television, publishing, music, and motion pictures. Issues include regulatory agencies, libel, privacy, publicity, restraint, copyright provisions, and contractual arrangements. (Spring, even years)

4313. Personal Communication Techniques. Principles and techniques of effective image projection with emphasis on professional dress, spoken, written, and body languages for better communication. Opportunity for presentations through mass media. (See HME 4313.)

4412. Graphic Art and Visual Communications IV. Continuation of 3422. (See VRT 4412.)

4432. Press Photography IV. Continuation of 3442. (See VRT 4432.)

4453. Public Relations Campaigns. A course to develop in students a clear set of principles to guide the planning, implementation and evaluations of comprehensive public relations campaigns. Prerequisite: COM 2153W or departmental permission. (Spring, even years)

4501-3. Independent Projects. A course in which the student selects and completes a project in any area of his/her interest under the direction of at least one member of the faculty. Written proposals must meet institutional requirements and have the approval of the department chairperson. May repeat for maximum of seven credits.

4603. Internship in Radio Broadcasting. Students are assigned as interns with commercial radio stations to obtain supervised hands-on experience with a variety of station operations. Prerequisite: Departmental permission. (Each semester)

4613. Internship in Television Broadcasting. Students are assigned as interns with commercial television stations, cable operations or production companies to obtain supervised hands-on experience with a variety of video operations. Prerequisite: Departmental permission. (Each semester)

4623. Internship in Public Relations. Students are assigned as interns with businesses, firms, non-profit organizations, public relations agencies, or related agencies and operations to obtain supervised hands-on experience with a variety of public relations operations. Prerequisite: Departmental permission. (Each semester)

4701-4. Special Topics in Communications. Selected topics from the field of communications not otherwise included in the departmental curriculum. Topic to be announced each time the course is offered. Permission of instructor.

4803W. Technical Writing and Editing. A practicum in professional skills used in writing and editing in industry, business, science and related fields. (See ENG 4803W.)

4922. Exit Project. A practical project or internship in an on-campus or professional media setting. Student must be at least a second-semester junior to apply for his/her exit project and will normally complete the project during the senior year. This requirement is viewed by the department as a culminating experience.

Theatre

The Bachelor of Arts in Theatre offers the following emphases:

- (1) Performance
- (2) Production
- (3) Theatre Arts Studies

Each emphasis will contain a department-approved sequence of appropriate courses.

Major Requirements: Bachelor of Arts in Theatre

Theatre 59 hours

1012. Design I. An introduction to two-dimensional design in a problem-solving workshop. The emphasis is on developing critical and creative thinking skills. (See VRT 1012.)

1233. History of Interiors and Decorative Arts I. The history of traditional Western and non-Western domestic architecture, interiors, furniture and decorative arts including high and vernacular styles. (See HME 1233.)

1243. History of Interiors and Decorative Arts II. The history of contemporary world-wide domestic architecture, interiors, furniture styles and decorative arts. (See HME 1243.)

1312. Design II. (See VRT 1312.)

1512. Color. Study of the theory of color as an element of design. The practical use and application of color by the artist-designer. Color theory, mixture, symbolism, psychology history and contemporary usage. Laboratory required. (See VRT 1512.)

1612. Presentation Techniques—Drafting. An introduction via lecture and demonstration to the varied presentation techniques used as principle mode of visual communication by the design profession. Includes studio experimentation with technical processes. Focus on architectural drafting as the most important presentation format including floor/electrical plans, elevations/perspectives, schedules and blueprinting process. (See HME 1612.)

2013. Introduction to the Theatre. A fundamental course in theatre as a form of artistic expression. Emphasis is placed on dramatic structure, types of plays, schools of dramatic thought, and the function of theatre personnel.

2423. Voice and Diction. A study of the International Phonetic Alphabet and the principles of effective voice usage. Special emphasis placed on improving voice and diction characteristics through exercises in projection, articulation and pronunciation. (Each semester)

2513. Creative Dance. Designed to develop a knowledge, technique and appreciation of the fundamentals of dance. Emphasis will be placed on creative movement, body coordination, flexibility, balance, design and expression. (As needed)

2523. Advanced Creative Dance. A continuation of 2513. Further technical training and personal expression as individuals or in group activities will be emphasized. Students will be trained to design and execute a performance as their final examination. Prerequisite: THE 2513 or instructor permission. (As needed)

2613. Costume Selection and Construction. Applications of basic principles to selection of commercial patterns, fabrics and ready-to-wear; fundamental techniques in garment construction and care of clothing. (See HME 2613.)

2701-4. Special Topics in Theatre.

3013. Acting and Makeup. An introduction to the nature, basic requirements and systems of acting. Exercises in characterization, line interpretation, and stage movement, with emphasis on both individual performance and ensemble acting. Includes unit in stage makeup. (Spring, odd years)

3023. Directing. A study of the theory and practice of directing the live stage play. Opportunity for selecting, casting, rehearsing, and staging a play for public performance. Prerequisite: THE 2013 and 3013 or permission of instructor. (Spring, even years)

3123. Survey of Drama. Reading and analysis of selected plays from ancient to contemporary times. Attention also given to major documents in dramatic theory and criticism from Aristotle to the present.

3213. Intermediate Acting. The study of Stanislavski and the method. Emphasis on characterization, emotional recall, and areas of concentration. The course will include a comparative analysis with the method and other theories of acting.

3243. Dramatic Literature. The study of plays as works of literature. Drawing from the Ancient Greeks to present day, the plays are analyzed by structure, theme, character development, and relevance to society. They are also analyzed by their relevance and characteristics to literary movements and their similarities and differences to other works written during the same period.

4013. Advanced Acting. Designed to develop the powers of observation and concentration in the advanced actor and to provide opportunity for intensive exploration of both representational and presentational styles of acting in period and modern formats. Prerequisite: THE 3013 or instructor's permission. (Spring, even years)

4023. Scene and Lighting Design. A practical study of the theories and techniques of theatrical scene and lighting design executed through a series of design assignments. Prerequisite: THE 1012, 1512, and 1612 or instructor's permission. (As needed)

4033. Theatre Management Seminar. A study of the control, direction, and handling of all commercial aspects of a theatre season of productions. Includes play selection, budget preparation and control, purchasing, advertising and publicity, ticket sales, and house management. Practical experience in the management operations of the Lambuth Theatre. (As needed)

4103. Playwriting. A course designed to teach the student the basic elements of plot, theme, structure, and character development in the writing of plays. In addition to studying the structure of plays, the student will write a one-act play.

4123. Stagecraft and Construction III. A practical study of backstage productional organization and activity. Emphasis on the physical theatre, costume design and construction. Application in constructing for a major production.

4133. Stagecraft and Construction IV. A practical study of backstage productional organization and activity. Emphasis on the physical theatre and technical management in the production areas. Application in managing for a major production.

4301. Performance. May be taken for credit each semester. The student will earn credit for working on productions.

4501-3. Independent Projects. A course in which the student selects and completes a project in any area of his/her interest under the direction of at least one member of the faculty. Written proposals must meet institutional requirements and have the approval of the department chairperson. May repeat for a maximum of seven credits.

4701-4. Special Topics in Theatre.

4922. Exit Project. A practical project or internship in an on-campus or off-campus theatre setting. Student must be at least a second semester junior to apply for his/her exit project and will normally complete the project during the senior year. This requirement is viewed by the department as a culminating experience.

School of Business, Education and Social Sciences

Education

Assistant Professor David Sergeant, Chairperson

Assistant Professors: Anderson, Hall, Roby

Instructor: Freeman

The Department of Education functions in the professional education of elementary, middle grades, secondary, and special education teachers, in the preparation of students for graduate study and research in education, and in cooperative efforts with public and private school personnel for educational improvement opportunities.

Students who wish to become candidates to teach in the elementary grades, middle grades or in special education, must have an interdisciplinary major. Teacher candidates who wish to teach in grades K-8 must have a concentration in child development courses while students who wish to teach in grades 5-8 must have a concentration in the arts and sciences. Students planning to teach in the secondary schools major in the appropriate certifiable subject matter. Those wanting licensure in Special Education must have an Exceptional Learning Major with a choice of emphasis in Early Childhood, Hearing Impaired, Comprehensive Programs or Modified Programs. Those wanting licensure in elementary, middle grades, secondary or special education may earn the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science Degree. All programs are approved for licensure in the State of Tennessee. Program adjustments can be made to meet the licensure requirements of other states.

Statement of Outcomes for Students

"The Education Department of Lambuth University seeks to prepare its students for licensure by providing a common offering of liberal arts and sciences based upon Christian values reaffirmed by the Wesleyan emphasis on the necessity for academic excellence and authentic faith that issue in the highest standards of personal integrity. Lambuth University strives to be an academic community of free inquiry in which future teachers are encouraged to broaden their perspectives and to reach an understanding of other cultures as they prepare for lives of leadership and service."

Admission to Teacher Education

Students desiring a license to teach must be accepted by the Education Department before enrolling in any methods courses in the teacher preparation sequence. This should be done one semester prior to anticipated enrollment in methods courses. If approved, students are expected to enter a planned sequence of courses and follow them to completion.

In order to be considered for the Teacher Education Program, all of the following requirements must be met/submitted to the Chair of the Education Department for presentation to the Education Advisory Committee:

1. An enhanced ACT score of 22 or above OR combined SAT score of 920 (Verbal & Math) OR the following scores on the State-mandated Pre-Professional Skills Test: 174-Reading; 173-Math; 173-Writing OR the following scores for Praxis: 321-Reading; 318-Math; 319-Writing.
2. Overall GPA of 2.5 or above
3. An average GPA of 2.5 for Foundations of Education (EDU 2524W) and Exceptional Child and School (EDU 3304).
4. Two written recommendations from Lambuth faculty outside the Education Department
5. Autobiographical information in narrative form.
6. An interview with the Education Advisory Committee or its representative.
7. A completed written application.
8. Approval by Education Advisory Committee.

Insurance Requirement

All students in Education courses requiring observation hours, tutorials, practica, or student-teaching must purchase STEA personal liability insurance within the first full week of classes. This is required by law, and no Lambuth student will be placed in local public schools without this insurance. Prices will vary, and every effort will be made to keep fees reasonable. Exact price will be announced on the first day of each Education class.

Admission to Enhanced Student Teaching

Application for Enhanced Student Teaching must be on file in the Education Department (Hyde 314) at least one semester in advance of the term in which the student expects to take the course. The application must be approved by the student's major advisor and the Educational Advisory Committee. Enhanced Student Teaching will normally be within a 30 mile radius of Jackson (subject to approval). Students will not be permitted to work in the same school with a relative or in schools they attended unless a period of 10 years has elapsed since leaving the school. Further, students will not be allowed to enroll in any other course during the Enhanced Student Teaching semester.

Before admission to the Enhanced Student Teaching semester, the student must have fulfilled the following requirements:

1. Admission to the Teacher Education Program.
2. Completion of the Lambuth Core and Supplemental Areas.
3. Completion of course work in the major area(s).
4. Completion of Professional Requirements with a minimum 3.0 gpa.
5. Senior standing and a minimum cumulative gpa of 2.5.
6. New exams, Principles of Learning and Teaching K-6 or 7-12 must be passed prior to student teaching as of September 1, 1998.
7. NTE Specialty must also be passed prior to student-teaching after September 1, 1999.
8. Submission of Pre-professional Portfolio exhibiting mastery of Knowledges and Skills of appropriate State mandated knowledge and skills to the Education Advisory Committee. In addition, the Portfolio must include a statement showing a minimum of 180 clock hours of in-school contact done during coursework while at Lambuth with individuals within the age range of the proposed Enhanced Student Teaching experience.

Recommendation for License

Tennessee State regulations stipulate that the applicant for a professional license must be recommended by the teacher-training institution. The Chairperson of the Department of Education is the official designated to recommend students for teacher licensure. Recommendations are given only to those students satisfactorily completing the professional programs as outlined. To receive this recommendation, the applicant must have fulfilled the following requirements:

1. Completion of the curriculum leading to the degree and licensure with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.5.
2. A minimum grade point average of 3.0 in education courses including student teaching.
3. Fulfillment of all special recommendations of the Educational Advisory Committee.
4. Fulfillment of all requirements as set forth in the Lambuth Catalog.
5. Submission of satisfactory score from the relevant Specialty section of the National Teachers' Examination.

LAMBUTH CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

The Lambuth Certification Program is designed to produce competent teachers for programs in elementary, middle grades, secondary and special education. Since recent research has highlighted the centrality of the teacher in determining the quality of instruction in the classroom, and the quality of instruction with the amount that students learn, priorities of this program are to transmit the knowledge, values, and skills necessary to place more effective teachers in classrooms. It includes knowledge believed to be important to the teaching of values, content, knowledges, and skills which students will need if they are to live rewarding and satisfying lives.

Each major requires successful completion of three groups of courses: I. Total General Education Requirements; II. Professional Education Requirements; and III. The appropriate Interdisciplinary major courses. The student must also complete the Enhanced Student Teaching semester successfully. These avenues of study result in certification.

Education

Interdisciplinary Studies Major (K-4)

This major is designed for the student who intends to teach in the elementary grades and has special interest in the young child. Courses are intended to provide students with the knowledge related to the physical, intellectual, psychological, and social development of the young child necessary to effectively guide learning.

Select courses in Psychology and Human Ecology provide a strong learning development background for the teacher candidate, while select courses in Religion and Sociology provide an appropriate background to teach our cultural heritage, the greatness of our nation, and guide the development of values.

Interdisciplinary Studies Major (5-8)

The major is designed for the student who desires elementary licensure but has a special interest in teaching students in the middle grades. Courses are intended to provide students with the knowledge related to the physical, intellectual, psychological, and social development of the older child necessary to effectively guide learning.

Select courses in Psychology provide a strong learning development background for the teacher candidate, while select courses in Religion, Sociology, and Political Science provide an appropriate background for understanding our multicultural society. Additionally, more varied study in the sciences is required as more advanced content in this area is part of the elementary curriculum in grades 5-8.

Secondary Education—Requirements for Certification

The following general education requirements must be met to be eligible for a secondary teaching license in the State of Tennessee. In most departments, these requirements are met by the general requirements of the department. In some cases, it will be necessary to make a limited number of substitutions in the departmental requirements. Candidates for teaching certificates in other states will need to be aware of variations in the requirements of the particular states and make the necessary adjustments. The professional education requirements of all candidates should be included in the electives.

Education

1003. College Reading Improvement. This course is designed to enable the student to improve reading and study skills. Through individual evaluation, class instruction and individualized laboratory work emphasis is placed upon improvement in vocabulary, comprehension, reading in content areas, speed and study skills.

All entering Freshmen and certain entering transfer students recommended by the Admissions Committee are subject to placement in EDU 1003 based on results from the Nelson-Denny test. Students scoring below a 50 on that test are required to take this course. Students with at least a 20 composite ACT score and at least a 23 on the ACT reading score are exempt from this testing.

2081-3 Practicum. For transfer students only. Designed to supplement courses from other institutions with Lambuth required field experiences. Required enrollment at Department of Education discretion.

2701-4. Special Topics in Education.

3012. Relational Learning—Math K-4. Attention is given to the scope and sequence of the elementary mathematics curriculum for grades kindergarten through fourth. Emphasis is placed on the use of manipulative materials and technology in understanding mathematical relationships and concepts. Prerequisite: MTH 1113 or 1133 (Fall, Spring)

3022. Relational Learning—Math 5-8. Attention is given to the scope and sequence of the elementary/middle school mathematics curriculum for grades five through eight. Emphasis is placed on the use of manipulative materials, algebra/geometry and technology in understanding mathematical relationships. Prerequisite: EDU 3012 (Fall, Spring)

3253W. Children's Literature. (See LIB 3253W)

3303. Elementary Art Education Methods. (See VRT 3303.)

3304. Exceptional Child and School. A survey and study of the educational and psychological aspects of exceptional children. The study considers the influences of the school in the development of the exceptional child. (Fall and Spring)

3323. Tests and Measurements. (See PSY 3323.)

4011-3. Education Workshop. This course is designed for the in-service teacher. Since each year's emphasis will be different, teachers can become current on the latest techniques in teaching, classroom management, and related areas of instruction.

4103. Assessment for Instructional Change. Emphasis placed on carrying out diagnostic procedures in the classroom, determining students' strengths and needs, and implementing corrective instruction while maintaining responsibility for ongoing instruction and assessment. Prerequisites: EDU 4313. (Spring)

4123. Modified Programs I—Special Education. A course on the characteristics and needs of students who have handicaps, but who can participate in the regular curriculum. Study will be made of etiology, necessary program adaptations and rationale for non-categorical programs. Field experience required. Prerequisite: EDU 2524W, and 3304. (Fall)

4133. Modified Programs II—Special Education. Concentration on the diagnostic interpretations of assessment data and curriculum adaption or design for students with special needs. Emphasis is placed on adaptive equipment and materials to be used. An IEP will be required, as well as some field experience. Prerequisite: EDU 4123 and PSY 3323. (Spring)

4143. Comprehensive Programs I—Special Education. A course on the characteristics and needs of students with moderate to severely handicapping conditions. Focus will be on etiology, needed service delivery and continuum options for learning settings. Field experience is required. Prerequisite: EDU 2524W, and 3304. (Fall)

4153. Comprehensive Programs II—Special Education. Concentration on diagnostic interpretation of ecological and standardized assessment data; curriculum design for functional academics, adaptive equipment utilization. Vocational/Community based training. An IEP and Field Experience is required. Prerequisite: EDU 4143. (Spring)

4163. Transdisciplinary Field Experience. Course designed to provide field experience in settings where transdisciplinary evaluation, treatment and teaching are being carried out. Prerequisite: Characteristics and Needs courses in specific areas. (Spring, odd years)

4173. Early Childhood Special Education. A course on the characteristics and needs of the preschool child with special education needs from birth. This looks at family needs as well. Covers etiology development from prenatal stages to age 6. Field Experience is required. Prerequisite: EDU 2524W, 3304. (Fall)

4183. Assessment and Curriculum Design for Early Childhood Special Education. Concentration on assessments, interpretation and program development for the child and family. An IFSP is required. Field Experience is also required. Prerequisite: EDU 4173. (Spring)

4233. Relational Learning—Science. This course will emphasize methods and materials for teaching elementary science and will stress the new curriculum programs available. (Spring)

4313. Literacy Processes: Language Arts K-8. Designed to give a detailed theoretical and practical picture of the integration of the four language arts strands: reading, writing, listening and speaking. Emphasis on teaching these processes through literature and the content areas, process and practice will be combined throughout the course. (Fall)

4323. Learning/Living in the Global Community. Explores approaches, methods and materials to be used in helping children appreciate multicultural perspectives. (Spring)

4333. Learning in the Kindergarten. Methods and materials appropriate to preschool children. Prerequisite: PSY 2023 or HME 2013. (Fall)

4373. Creating Classroom Environments. This course introduces the student to the use of behavioral principles in classroom interaction with exceptional children. Special emphasis is placed on theoretical models of behavior and procedures used by experts in the field when children with atypical behaviors are involved. Field experience required. Prerequisite: EDU 2524W and EDU 3304. Fall.

4383. Instructional Strategies and Resources for Special Education. Methods for teaching individuals with special needs in the elementary and secondary years. A close look at the resources, including current technologies, which are available to enhance functioning in academic and vocational training settings. Observation and on-site experience with therapists and other resource specialists required. Prerequisite: either EDU 4133 or 4153 and EDU 4373. (Summer)

4393. Learning Environments and Resources for the Preschool Child with Special Needs. The variety of environmental settings which will enhance learning for the child with special educational needs from birth to age six. Resources for stimulation and available technology to maximize functioning. Observations and on-site experiences with therapists and other resource specialists required. Prerequisite: EDU 4183 and 4373. (Spring)

4404. Reading in the Middle Grades and High School. Concentration on the broadening demands of reading in the middle grades and high school and the training of teachers to implement the new skills required by older students in the content areas. (Fall)

4423. Gifted and Talented I. The characteristics and needs of children who are identified as gifted and talented. This course looks at the research and history of education for these students. Various models for implementation of effective programs are explored. Field experience required. Prerequisite: EDU 2524W, 3304. (Fall, odd years)

4433. Gifted and Talented II. The course looks at assessments and program design as well as methods for teaching students who are gifted and/or talented. A classroom design and curriculum outline are required. Prerequisite: EDU 4423. (Spring, even years)

4483. Advanced School Laboratory in Special Education. A full semester field experience in a clinical or public school setting in which the student will have the opportunity to assess, design, and carry out curriculum; do hands-on group work, attend M-teams (where possible) under a mentor teacher. (Spring, odd years)

4501-3. Independent Study in Education. Designed for the advanced student who desires to pursue individual research in a specific area of education. Open only to upper division students with permission of instructor and department chairman. One to three hours credit.

4613. Hearing Impaired—Characteristics and Needs. A study of the social, psychological and cognitive development of learners with hearing impairments from birth through adulthood. Etiology, behavior and educational implications of hearing impairments. Field Experience required. Prerequisite: EDU 2524W, and EDU 3304. (Fall)

4623. Communication Processes for Hearing Impaired. A course to familiarize the student with the various forms of communication (manual, oral, total, etc.) which are used with persons who are hearing impaired. (Fall)

4633. Speech Development of the Hearing Impaired. A study of the effects of hearing impairment on language acquisition. Looks at normal language development and functioning of the speech, auditory and visual mechanisms in communicative behavior in students with and without hearing impairments. Prerequisite: EDU 4613. (Spring)

4653. Advanced Audiology Practicum for Students with Hearing Impairments. The course will give the student practice in selecting, administering, scoring and interpreting assessments used with audiometric examination. Etiology and diagnosis of hearing problems and how to remediate based on assessment will be studied. Implementation will occur under a registered audiologist located at the West Tennessee School for the Deaf. Field experience is required. Prerequisite: EDU 4643. (Summer)

3023. Adaptive Physical Education. To familiarize the student with the role of adapted physical education and the physical, emotional, social and learning characteristics of exceptional students.

3123. Methods and Materials of Activities for Secondary Schools. Selection of activities and teaching methods used in secondary school physical education programs. Fundamental skills are stressed in activities with high carry-over value that can be used in later years.

3153. Community Nutrition. (See HME 3153.)

3303. Physiology of Exercise. This course deals with the effects of exercise on the human body. Prerequisite: Biology 2014 or 2024.

3313. Camping and Camp Counseling. A study of organization, administration, current trends, program areas and counseling techniques of various camp programs.

3333. Kinesiology. The study of human movement and its application in physical education and sport.

4003. Sport Psychology. This course deals with the principles of psychology applied in a sport or exercise setting to enhance performance.

4023. Principles, History and Philosophy of Physical Education. A study of the history of physical education; the philosophies of many leaders in physical education; the origins and nature of modern physical education; major emphasis in selection, adaptation, and teaching appropriate activities.

4034. Clinical Athletic Training: Therapeutic Modalities and Exercise. A study of the therapeutic modalities and exercises utilized by athletic trainers to treat athletic injuries. Prerequisite: BIO 2014 and 2024, PED 3333 and HLT/PED 3003.

4044. Advanced Athletic Training: Injury Recognition and Treatment. A study of the signs, symptoms and mechanics of sports injuries and current methods of treatment for these injuries. Prerequisites: BIO 2014 and 2024, PED 3333, and HLT/PED 3003.

4103. Organization, Administration and Supervision of Physical Education. A study of administration problems of health and physical education including curriculum, facilities, purchase and care of equipment and supplies, general class organization and supervision, and organization of an intramural program.

4112. Coaching Basketball. Coaching fundamental skills of basketball.

4122. Coaching Baseball/Softball. Coaching fundamental skills of baseball and softball.

4132. Coaching Tennis. Coaching fundamental skills of tennis.

4142. Coaching Track. Coaching fundamental skills of track.

4152. Coaching Football. Coaching fundamental skills of football.

4162. Coaching Soccer. Coaching fundamental skills of soccer.

4172. Coaching Volleyball. Coaching fundamental skills of volleyball.

4501-3. Independent Study in Physical Education.

Recreation

2013. Introduction to Recreation. To acquaint the student with the principles, history, and philosophy of leisure, play and recreation; to provide insight into the public, private, commercial and other aspects of recreation; to indicate the employment possibilities in each recreation section.

2023. Recreation Leadership. The role of leadership in relation to objectives, organization, leadership skills, and procedures as related to recreation, park, and other leisure oriented settings.

2701-4. Special Topics in Recreation.

3013. Program Planning for Recreation Professionals. To acquaint the student with various areas of recreation; to provide insight into the planning and scheduling of these content areas into well-balanced recreation programs; and to help the student explore the future trends in recreation program planning.

3023. Recreation Management. A practical orientation to a variety of recreation and leisure facilities including management and operational responsibilities.

3313. Outdoor Recreation. (See PED 3313.)

4013. Recreation Seminar. To introduce the student to current problems, 'trends' and issues in the area of leisure services. Prerequisite: Senior standing or instructor's permission.

4501-3. Independent Study in Recreation.

4805. Internship in Recreation. Experience in recreation planning, leadership, supervision and program evaluation through work in the Jackson City Recreation Department and/or the Madison County Recreation Department. This in-service experience will be supervised and controlled jointly by the Lambuth Health, Physical Education and Recreation Department and the Jackson City Recreation Department . Internship lasts ten weeks for eight hours per day. A summer internship is desirable. This internship may be arranged so that this requirement may be completed in a hometown recreation department, subject to approval.

4701-4. Special Topics in Recreation.

History

Associate Professor Robert H. Mathis, Chairperson, Department of Social Studies

Assistant Professor: R. Austin

Major requirements:

Sociology 2113	3 hours
Economics 2033 or 2043	3 hours
Political Science 2113 or 2213	3 hours
History	33 hours
(including 1013, 1023, 1313, 1323, and 4013—Twelve of the additional 18 hours in history must be upper level courses; nine of these must be at Lambuth.)

Minor requirements:

History 1013, 1023, 1313, 1323 and six upper level electives	18 hours

Secondary Teaching Certificate Requirements:

In addition to the requirements for a secondary teaching license in the State of Tennessee as listed in the "Education" section of this catalog, candidates for a history teaching license must include in their coursework the following courses designated as meeting the State Board of Education knowledge and skills requirements:

EDU 4733	SOC 2083
HIS 1013 and 1023	SOC 2313
HIS 4013	SOC 3623W
HIS 4223W (Asia)	SOC 4313W
POL 2113 or HIS 1313 and 1323

1013, 1023. Survey of Western Civilization I and II. A survey of the political, social, and intellectual developments of Occidental civilization.

1313, 1323. Survey of the History of the United States I and II. A survey of the United States from the earliest times to the present day.

2203. History of England to 1660. A survey of the social, economic and political development of the English people to 1660.

2213. England Since 1600. A survey of England and the Empire from the beginning of the seventeenth century to the present.

2701-4. Special Topics in History.

3113. The Ancient World. A history of Europe from the age of Homer through the age of Constantine the Great.

3213W. America Since 1945. Political, social, economic, and cultural developments in America since the end of World War II.

3233W. Renaissance and Reformation. A history of Europe from the beginning of the Renaissance through the Thirty Years War.

3243. The French Revolution. A examination of the social, political, economic, and intellectual causes of the French Revolution, the Old Regime, wars and governmental successions until the fall of the Napoleonic Empire.

3313. Civil War and Reconstruction. Slavery and the rise of Southern nationalism; secession; wartime problems of the Union and Confederacy; political and economic adjustments of the Reconstruction; the New South; problems of capital and labor; the agrarian revolt; political parties and reform.
History

3413W. History of Tennessee. Physical features, Native Americans and the beginning of white settlements; the Revolution, Southwest Territory and statehood economic, political, and social developments; Civil War and Reconstruction; economic, educational, and political progress in the twentieth century.

4013. Senior Seminar in History and Political Science. A capstone experience for History and Political Science majors to review and integrate their academic course work, strengthen their understanding of methodology in the two fields, and relate their academic preparation to post-graduation goals.

4023W. Russia and the Soviet Union. A history of Russia from the beginning of the seventeenth century until the present.

4113. Europe in the Nineteenth Century. A history of Europe beginning with the Congress of Vienna and continuing through the outbreak of World War I.

4123. Europe in the Twentieth Century. A history of Europe in its world setting beginning with the origins of World War I and continuing to the present.

4223W. The Development of Nations. The history of national development in selected regions and countries of the world. Africa and the Middle East, Asia, Europe and Latin America are taught on a rotating basis. May be repeated with a change in topic.

4501-3. Independent Study in History. Designed for the advanced student who desires to pursue individual research in a specific phase of history. The work will be under the supervision of one or more members of the department. Open only to upper division students. One to three credits.

4701-4. Special Topics in History.

4801-6. Internship I. Content varies. Course is designed to provide students with applied experience in their fields of study. A variety of internships are available including the Washington Center and Tennessee Legislative Internships. May also be taken at local offices or agencies. One to six credits.

4901-6. Internship II. See Internship I.

Honors

(See Special Programs)

Honors I. 3002. Departmental Honors. Two hours credit. Spring Term, Junior year.

Honors II. 4002. Departmental Honors. Two hours credit. Fall term, Senior year.

Honors III. 4004. Departmental Honors. Four hours credit. Spring term, Senior year.

Human Ecology

Professor Lawrence Allen Ray, Chairperson

Associate Professor: Creasy

The Department of Visual Art and Human Ecology offers the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science Degree with a major in Human Ecology with concentrations in either Family and Consumer Sciences, Foods and Nutrition, Fashion Merchandising, or Interior Design.

Major Requirements:

Philosophy (3603W recommended)	1 course
Psychology 2013 or Sociology 2113	1 course
Music Appreciation 2002 or Intro to Theatre 2013	1 course
Art Appreciation or Art History	1 course
Human Ecology 1302, 4313, 4243	3 courses

Concentrations and specified course requirements:

Family and Consumer Sciences HME 1012, 1023, 1033, 1612, 2013, 2213, 2513, 2613, 2633, 3013, 4213, 4412 and 4513 and six additional hours of Human Ecology.

Foods and Nutrition HME 1012, 1023, 1033, 1512, 2013, 2213, 3153, 4123, 4213, 4513, CHM 1314 and 1324, BUS 2053, SOC 2113, and ECO 2043.

Fashion Merchandising VRT 1012, COM 2423, HME 1512, 2153, 2613, 2633, 3003, 3463, 4013, 4103, 4412, 4513, ACC 2113, MKT 3033, MKT 3173, and MKT 3183.

Interior Design VRT 1012, 1312, HME 1233, 1243, 1512, 1612, 2633, 3013, 3232, 3253, 3483, 4012, 4122, 4213 or 4013, 4412, 4513, ACC 2113, MKT 3033, 3173, 3183, 3393W and six hours of Art History.

Minor Requirements: Family and Consumer Sciences	18 hours total
Human Ecology 1023 Prin. of Nutrition	3 hours
Human Ecology 2513 Marriage & the Family	3 hours
Human Ecology 4513 Consumer Economics	3 hours
Human Ecology Courses (variety)	9 hours

Minor Requirements: Foods and Nutrition	18 hours total
Human Ecology 1023 Prin. of Nutrition	3 hours
Human Ecology 1033 Applied Nutrition	3 hours
Human Ecology 2213 Food Management	3 hours
Human Ecology Courses (variety)	9 hours

Minor Requirements: Fashion Merchandising	18 hours total
Human Ecology 2633 Textiles I	3 hours
Human Ecology 4013 Principles and Practices of Merchandising	3 hours
Human Ecology 3003 Fashion Design & Analysis	3 hours
Human Ecology Courses (variety)	9 hours

Minor Requirements: Interior Design	19 hours total
Visual Art 1012 Design I	2 hours
Human Ecology 1233 or 1243 History of Interior Design	3 hours
Human Ecology 1612 Presentation Techniques—Drafting	2 hours
Human Ecology 2633 Textiles I	3 hours
Human Ecology 3013 Introduction to Interior Design	3 hours
Interior Design Courses	6 hours

1012. Applied Design. A general introduction to the principles and practices of visual design and their applied use in fashion, foods and the home environment. (Fall)

1023. Principles of Nutrition. Fundamental principles of human nutrition and their application to the selection of adequate diets. Current topics of nutritional importance. (Fall)

1033. Applied Nutrition. Application of principles of nutrition to lifestyle, stress and the treatment of problems such as weight control, heart disease, diabetes, etc. Prerequisite: HME 1023 or instructor's permission. (Spring)

1233. History of Interiors and Decorative Arts I. The history of traditional Western and non-Western domestic architecture, interiors, furniture and decorative arts including high and vernacular styles. (Alternate Fall)

1243. History of Interiors and Decorative Arts II. The history of contemporary world-wide domestic architecture, interiors, furniture styles, and decorative arts. (Alternate Spring)

1302. Introduction to Human Ecology. An introduction to the multi-disciplinary field of Human Ecology with emphasis on the centrality of the human/family to all sub-disciplines covered by this umbrella title: via readings, discussion, resource persons, etc. to explore the nature of human ecology and its specific relation to each student and their career goal. (Fall)

1312. Design II. (See VRT 1312.)

1512. Color. Study of the theory of color as an element of design. The practical use and application of color by the artist-designer. Color theory, mixture, symbolism, psychology, history and contemporary usage. (Fall)

1612. Presentation Techniques—Drafting. An introduction via lecture and demonstration to the varied presentation techniques used as principle mode of visual communication by the design profession. Studio experimentation with technical processes for creating these. Focus on architectural drafting, as the most important presentation format including floor/electrical plans, elevations/perspectives, schedules and blueprinting process. (Fall)

2013. Child Development. Principles of human development and learning process as they relate to early childhood through adolescence. Observation and participation in preschool center. (See SOC 2013.) (Spring)

2153. History of Fashion/Clothing. Chronological survey of the history of the human's closest environment—clothing. 1) Study of the historic function and social psychological factors of clothing/fashion throughout the world; 2) Art historical study of clothing as a visual art form. Basic clothing construction is emphasized. (Alternate Spring)

2513. Marriage and the Family. (See SOC 2513.)

2613. Textile Selection and Construction. Basic principles and techniques in selecting and constructing fabrics for apparel and household furnishings. (Spring and Fall)

2701-4. Special Topics in Human Ecology.

3003. Fashion Analysis. An introduction to the fashion industry. An evaluation of design, production and sales. Survey and analysis of designers and style trends. (Spring)

3013. Introduction to Interior Design. An introduction to professional interior design practice with focus on human behavioral and aesthetic factors necessary for the creation of well-designed habitable environments for the individual and family. Achieved through lectures, demonstration, problem-solving experimentation and field observation. (Fall)

3153. Community Nutrition. A study of the community and agencies concerned with meeting the nutritional needs of various ethnic, age, and socioeconomic groups.

3253. Contract Interiors I. An introduction to contract interior design, a subspecialization within the interior design profession. Focus on the important human behavioral and aesthetic factors necessary in creating positive environmental work spaces. Students, individually develop an entire contract design concept for an actual corporate client including behavioral factors planning, specifications and the creation of a total presentation layout. (Alternate Fall)

3463. Computer Aided Fashion. An introduction to Computer Technology and skills for the Fashion Merchandiser in use in the Fashion Industry today. These include computer applications related to fashion and textile design, clothing patterns and construction, and buying and retailing. (Alternate Spring)

3483. Computer Aided Drafting I. An introduction to Computer Aided Graphics including the development of skills needed to create two dimensional plans, and three dimensional perspectives and axiometrics.

3583. Computer Aided Drafting II. A continuation of Computer Aided Drafting I utilizing Autocad Release Twelve Microcomputer and Drafting Programs. The emphasis will be placed on essential commands to create architecture and professional two- and three-dimensional drawings, drafting and modeling projects. (Fall)

4012. Professional Practices and Procedures for Interior Designers. Professional ethics and business practices in Interior Design. Prerequisite: HME 3012. (Alternate Spring)

4013. Principles and Practices of Retail Management. Focus on current retailing practices. The development of policies, methods, and strategies to accommodate the rapidly changing retail environment. (Spring)

4103. Textiles II. A study of the textile industry with emphasis on the advancement of manufactured fibers and the consumer. (Fall)

4112. Contract Interiors II. Specialized contract design problems; planning and executing health care, food-lodging, educational, retail, civic and ecclesiastical habitable interior environments. Study of codes and Standards required in contract design field. Students, individually, develop a specialized contract concept for an actual client including behavior factors, functional planning, specifications, and the creation of a total presentation layout. (Alternate Spring)

4123. Food Systems Management. Practical experience in planning, purchasing, preparing, and serving food in large quantities, equipment selection, and cost control. Planned work experience in selected quantity foods operations. Prerequisite: HME 2213 and Permission of Instructor. (As needed)

4213. Architecture: Design, Construction, Materials and Lighting. Study of architectural styles, features, and design; construction principles; architectural building and finish materials; climate control; lighting planning and use; planning and design of the kitchen and bath. (Alternate Spring)

4223. Residential Interiors. An introduction to professional interior design practice with focus on human behavioral and aesthetic factors necessary for the creation of well-designed habitable environments for the individual and family. Achieved through lectures, demonstration, problem-solving experimentation and field observation. (Spring)

4313. Public Relations Techniques. Principles and techniques of effective image projection with emphasis on professional dress, spoken, written, and body languages for better communication. Resume preparation and business etiquette. Opportunity for presentations through mass media. (Spring)

4343. Human Ecology/Visual Art Exit Seminar and Internship. Weekly exit seminar required of all majors in Human Ecology and Visual Arts in which disciplinary knowledge gleaned during four-year program will be critically re-examined and discussed. Individually organized internships in Commercial Art, Home Economics, Fashion Merchandising and Interior Design. Senior research problem, exhibition and portfolio prepared. (All terms)

4412. Visual Merchandising. Introduction to the fundamentals of visual merchandising. Focus on current trends in merchandise presentation, principles in display planning, execution, and evaluation. (Spring)

4501-3. Independent Study in Human Ecology/Visual Art. The student will select an interest area and develop with the instructor a plan of study. Credit may be for one to three hours. (All terms)

4513. Consumer Economics. Ways to maximize consumer resources through the basic rights of protection, access to information. Topics include retail markets, advertising, housing, clothing, transportation, medical care, and insurance. (Fall)

4701-4. Special Topics in Human Ecology.

4792. Methods of Teaching Home Economics. The development of curriculum materials in home economics based upon pupil needs, selection of learning experiences, teaching materials, and evaluation of pupil growth and development.

Interdisciplinary Lambuth Core Courses

The following seminar courses may not be taken as a tutorial course or in any independent manner.

FRS 1001. Interdisciplinary Courses: Freshmen Seminar. Required of entering freshmen. The seminar will provide support for beginning students by offering help with study skills, by increasing awareness of personal strengths and interests, and by relating strengths to their educational planning.

JRS 3003W. Interdisciplinary Courses: The Nineteenth Century. Required interdisciplinary course of all juniors which views the nineteenth century as a time in which major world issues in Western culture shifted from an assumption of constancy to one of change.

SRS 4003. Interdisciplinary Courses: The Twentieth Century. Required of all seniors. Interdisciplinary course with focus on twentieth century. Students use selected major ideas of twentieth century as basis for senior thesis in their major field of study.

School of Business, Education and Social Sciences

International Studies

Associate Professor Robert H. Mathis, Chairperson, Department of Social Studies

The degree in International Studies, in addition to being a sound component in a liberal arts education, will enable students to meet the requirements of leading graduate and law schools, and prepare students for careers in government, research, international organizations, affairs, and the public and private sectors wherever there is a need for international expertise. The International Studies major gives students a breadth of disciplinary approaches and geographical experience in its courses. The International Studies major is a Bachelor of Arts Degree, which requires the second year of a foreign language (2013 and 2023 in French, German, or Spanish). For those students who are unprepared to take the second year of a foreign language, the two-year sequence (1013, 1023, 2013, and 2023) is required.

Major Requirements:

HIS 1023 Survey of Western Civilization	3 hours
ENG 2213W or 2223W World Literature	3 hours
POL 2213 International Relations	3 hours
SOC 2313 Cultural Anthropology or POL/SOC 2083 Political and Social Geography	3 hours
REL 2333 Classics of Eastern Thought or REL 2613 Judaism and Islam	3 hours
HIS 4223W Development of Nations	3 hours
POL 3213 U.S. Foreign Policy	3 hours
POL 3013 Comparative Government	3 hours

ECO 2033 Principles of Macroeconomics	3 hours
Foreign language literature or civilization course (beyond B.A. requirement)	3 hours

Capstone experience: Six credit hours for academic work in the Lambuth at Oxford Program at Westminster College, Oxford, England, or another approved study abroad program. In lieu of participation in one of the approved study abroad programs, students may elect to take the International Studies Seminars (POL 4013/4701; these seminars include writing and presentation of high-quality research papers) 4-6 hours

Total 34-36 hours

Minor Requirements:

Foreign Language: Students must complete the second year of a foreign language	6-12 hours
POL 2213 International Relations	3 hours
ECO 2033 Principles of Macroeconomics or POL 3013 Comparative Government	3 hours

Capstone experience: same as for International Studies majors 4-6 hours

School of Natural and Applied Sciences

Mathematical Sciences

Professor Ronnie C. Barnes, Chairperson

Associate Professor: S. Barnes

Visiting Associate Professor: Kazempour

Assistant Professor: Hakim

Instructor: J. Albury

The Department of Mathematical Sciences offers a major in Mathematics and minors in Computer Science, Mathematics, and Physics. Requirements for each program are listed below.

Mathematics

Major Requirements:

Mathematics (including Math 4213, 4313)	30 hours
Physics 2214 or 2304	4 hours
Philosophy 3753	3 hours
Computer Science 1253 or above	3 hours
Total	40 hours

Students planning to graduate are strongly urged to read Graduation Requirements A-F found under the description of the Academic Program in this catalog.

Minor Requirements:

Mathematics (Math 2114, 2124, 3023)	11 hours
Mathematics upper division electives (3000 level)	7-9 hours

Computer Science

Minor Requirements:

Computer Science (CSC 1263, 3013, 4103)	9 hours
Computer Science electives (any CSC course above 1003)	9 hours

Mathematical Sciences

Physics

Physics 2114 and 2224 or 2304 and 2314	8 hours
Physics upper division electives (300 level)	10-11 hours
Total	18-19 hours

Computer Science

1003. Introduction to Computer Science. A survey of computer applications, impact of computers on individuals and society.

1253. Introduction to Programming with BASIC. A beginning course in computer programming that stresses problem-solving methods, algorithm development, and good programming style with the language BASIC. Students will use the microcomputer while writing programs for computer operator interactive games, alphabetizing, personal finance and other applications.

1263. Introduction to PASCAL Programming. This course stresses the development of program design. Students are introduced to a structured language, PASCAL, and to data structures.

2253. File Processing. Assigned programming projects give students experience in the design and creation of file processing systems. Characteristics and utilization of a variety of storage devices are covered. Algorithm analysis and programming techniques are stressed. Prerequisite: CSC 1253. (Spring)

2701-4. Special Topics in Computer Science.

3003. Introduction to Assembly Language Programming. A study of the design and architecture of computer systems. The student will become familiar with the internal operation of the computer through the use of assembly language programming. (Fall)

3013. Introduction to "C" Programming Languages. An applied course in the programming language C. Language definition structures, data and control structures, run-time considerations, interpretive languages, lexical analysis and parsing. Prerequisite: CSC 1253 or 1263.

3213. Numerical Methods. (See MTH 3213.)

4003. Computer Graphics. A study in the techniques and technology used for graphical representation of data on computer peripherals. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor. (Spring, even years)

4013. Digital Logic and Electronic Circuit Design. An introduction to digital electronics logic and design. Boolean algebra, logic gates, integrated circuits, and microcomputer interfacing will be emphasized with a hands-on learning approach. Students buy supplies. Prerequisite: CSC 1253 and 3003. (Spring, odd years)

4103. Data Structures. This course uses the computer language PASCAL to introduce abstract concepts of data organization such as stacks, queues, linked lists, and binary trees. Programming is required. Prerequisite: CSC 1263. (Spring, odd years)

4203. Artificial Intelligence. This course introduces students to basis concepts of intelligent systems and gives insights into active research areas and applications. Knowledge based and expert systems covered in depth. Required for CSC majors. (Spring, even years)

4501-3. Independent Study in Computer Science.

4701-4. Special Topics in Computer Science.Mathematics

1013. Principles of Mathematics. A mathematics course for the non-science, non-math major. This course attempts to show what mathematics is, what the mathematical approach to problems can accomplish and the extent to which mathematics is an integral part of our civilization and culture. It includes material from arithmetic, algebra, geometrics, functions, probability, statistics, and analytical geometry. (May not be taken by students who have successfully completed a higher-level mathematics.) (Each term)

1103. Intermediate Algebra. An introduction to the properties of real and complex numbers, exponents and radicals, one variable equations and inequalities, exponents, logarithms, and functions. Graphing is stressed. Three periods per week. Prerequisite: Algebra I in high school or MTH 1013. (May not be taken by students who have successfully completed a higher-level mathematics.) (Each term)

All entering freshmen and certain entering transfer students recommended by the Admissions Committee are subject to placement in MTH 1013 or MTH 1103 based on results from tests administered by the Math Department. Students making below 33% are to take MTH 1013. Students making below 67% but above 33% are to take MTH 1103. Students making above 67% are to take MTH 1113, 1133 or above. Students scoring at least 24 on the ACT are exempt from this testing.

1113. College Algebra and Trigonometry. An introduction to circular functions and their graphs, trigonometric functions and their inverses, exponential and logarithmic functions. Three hours per week. Prerequisite: Algebra II in high school or MTH 1103.

1133. Mathematical Concepts. This course will explore basic logic, truth tables, elementary probability and statistics, exponential functions, financial math and linear programming. Emphasis will be placed on critical thinking and problem solving. Prerequisite: MTH 1013 or placement.

2124. Calculus II. A continuation of Math 2114. A study of differential and integral calculus of exponential, logarithmic, and trigonometric functions. Special emphasis on techniques of integration and an introduction to parametric equations and polar coordinates. Prerequisite: MTH 1113 and 2114 or the equivalent. (Spring)

2701-4. Special Topics in Mathematics.

3013. Probability and Statistics. A study of the measures of central tendency, probability, normal distribution, chi-square, correlations, and regression. Three periods per week. Prerequisite: MTH 2114. (May, odd years)

3023. Linear Algebra. A study of systems of linear equations, matrices, vector spaces, linear mappings, determinants, and quadratics. Three periods per week. This course is prerequisite to most advanced mathematics courses. Prerequisite: MTH 2114. (Fall, odd years)

3114. Calculus III. A continuation of Math 2124. Indeterminate forms, improper integrals, and infinite series are studied during the first eight weeks. The remainder of the course is concentrated on multivariable differential and integral calculus-partial differentiation, multiple integrals, directional derivatives, line and surface integrals. Prerequisite: MTH 2124. Four periods per week. (Fall)

3213. Numerical Methods. Introduces the binary number system, sources of roundoff error in floating-point programming, calculation of functions using power series, methods of determining roots of equations, solutions to simultaneous equations, numerical integration and ordinary differential equations. Computer programs will be used to simplify tedious calculations. Prerequisite: MTH 2124 and CSC 1253 or CSC 1263.

4113. Modern Algebra. An introduction to modern abstract algebra, groups, rings, fields, and integral domains. Three periods per week. Prerequisite: MTH 2124. (Fall, even years)

4213. Differential Equations. A study of the theory and methods for solving ordinary total differential equations. Topics include existence and uniqueness theorems, methods for solving first and second order linear differential equations, operator methods, power series solutions, matrix methods and numerical integration. Three periods per week. Prerequisite: MTH 2124.

4313. Advanced Real Calculus. Theoretical rather than applied development of calculus. Includes inquiries into the real number system, functions, sequences, limits, continuity, theory of differentiation and integration. Three periods per week. Prerequisite: MTH 3114.

4501-3. Independent Study in Mathematics.

4701-4. Special Topics in Mathematics. An advanced study of modern topics in mathematics and/or computer science. Prerequisite: Instructor's permission.

Physics

2214. College Physics. An algebra and trigonometry based study of kinematics, dynamics, statics, rotational motion, conservation laws, gravitation, elasticity, waves, sound, temperature and heat. One lab per week. Co-requisite: MTH 1113. (Fall)

2224. College Physics. A continuation of Physics 2214. An algebra and trigonometry based study of ideal gases, thermodynamics, electromagnetism, circuit analysis, geometric optics, physical optics, relativity, and elements of atomic and nuclear physics. One lab per week. Prerequisite: PHY 2214 or permission of instructor. (Spring)

2304. Physics for Science and Engineering. Course content is the same as Physics 2214 except that vector algebra and calculus are used. Required of all pre-engineering students and recommended for majors in mathematics, chemistry or physical science. Meets five times per week. One lab session. Prerequisite: MTH 1113. Co-requisite: MTH 2114. (Fall)

2314. Physics for Science and Engineering. Course content is the same as Physics 2224 except that vector algebra and calculus are used. Required of all pre-engineering students and recommended for majors in mathematics, chemistry, or physical science. Meets five times per week. One lab session. Prerequisite: PHY 2304 or permission of instructor. Co-requisite: MTH 2124. (Spring)

2701-4. Special Topics in Physics.

3114. Astronomy of the Solar System. A study of objects and phenomena found in our solar system. The motions and physical properties of planets, moons, asteroids, comets, and the Sun will be surveyed. One lab per week.

3124. Stellar Astronomy. A survey of objects and phenomena which lie outside our solar system. Special emphasis will be placed upon how intrinsic properties of stars, interstellar matter, and galaxies are found. One lab per week.

4501-3. Independent Study in Physics.

4701-4. Special Topics in Physics.

Music

Professor Jo L. Fleming, Chairperson

Professor: Huneycutt

Associate Professor: Brown

Assistant Professor: Bernhardt

The Department of Music offers the Bachelor of Music degree with a major in Music and concentrations in Church Music, Music Education (Instrumental and Vocal), Performance (Instruments, Organ, Piano, Voice), and Piano Pedagogy. The Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees are also offered with a major in Music and concentrations in Applied Music or Music Education. Each student should select an area of concentration as early as possible and no later than the beginning of the junior year.

Major Requirements: Bachelor of Music Degree

Theory and Harmony	14 hours
Music History	6 hours
Music 2312, 2322	4 hours
Ensemble	4 hours

In addition, individual concentrations for the Bachelor of Music degree require the following courses:

Piano Pedagogy

Major Applied	24 hours
Minor Applied	2 hours
Piano Pedagogy	2 hours
Music 3003	3 hours
Music Electives	2 hours

Church Music

Major Applied	24 hours
Minor Applied	2 hours
Music 3513	3 hours
Music Electives	9 hours

Performance

Major Applied	32 hours
Minor Applied	2 hours
Music 4022	2 hours
Music Electives	4 hours

Music

Music Education—Vocal

Major Applied	15 hours
Music 3003, 3302, 4423	8 hours

Music Education—Instrumental

Major Applied	16 hours
Minor Applied	2 hours
Band Administration*	1 hour
Marching Band*	2 hours
Brass/Percussion*	2 hours
Woodwinds*	2 hours
Elementary Music	3 hours

*Keyboard majors may substitute choral, vocal and keyboard methods.

The Bachelor of Music degrees in Music Education and Piano Pedagogy are designed to meet the certification requirements for the State of Tennessee upon completion of the professional education courses.

Concentration Requirements: Bachelor of Arts Degree, Bachelor of Science Degree

Applied Music

Major Applied	12 hours
Minor Applied	2 hours
Theory and Harmony	14 hours
Music History	6 hours
Music 2312, 2322, 4022	6 hours
Ensemble	8 hours

Music Education

Major Applied	12 hours
Theory and Harmony	14 hours
Music History	6 hours
Music 2312, 2322	4 hours
Music 3003 (or 3112 and 3122)	3-4 hours

Education 4713	3 hours
Minor Applied	2 hours

The major in music in the Bachelor of Music, the Bachelor of Arts, and the Bachelor of Science degrees may be adapted to lead toward certification as a director of music in the United Methodist Church.

All music majors are required to pass a piano proficiency examination, to attend all student and faculty recitals, to appear on student recital at least once each semester when taking applied music for credit, and to give a senior recital.

Voice majors are required to participate in the Lambuth Concert Choir and Instrumental Majors are required to participate in Lambuth Concert Band unless waived by the Chairman of the Department. Only four hours credit will count toward graduation requirements for the Bachelor of Music Degree. Keyboard Majors are required to accompany as assigned by their instructor.

Music Minor

Music Theory 1113, 1123	6 hours
Conducting 2312	2 hours
Music History 3223W	3 hours
Applied Music	5 hours
Ensemble	2 hours

Applied music and ensemble taken beyond the sophomore level will be considered upper division credit. The above outline for the music minor is a prototype and may be adjusted to fit the students needs.

1113, 1123. Music Theory. Fundamentals of musicianship including sight-singing, ear training, dictation and basic four-part writing. Harmonization of given melodies in major and minor including the use of all chords in diatonic harmony. Three to five periods per week.

1131, 1141. Keyboard Harmony. Study of basic keyboard skills as they relate to standard harmonic practice. Emphasis on playing of major and minor scales, intervals, triads and seventh chords and their inversions, cadences and the realization of figured bass and chord symbols at the keyboard. Required for music majors. May be exempt by examination.

1721. General Ensemble: Brass, Woodwind, Chamber, Etc. The study and performance of quality literature for various combinations of instruments. May be repeated for credit.

2002. Music Appreciation. Introduction to music as an art form from the listener's point of view. Music of various composers, periods, and styles is studied through the use of recordings and class discussions.

2011, 2021. Advanced Sight-Singing and Ear Training. Designed to stress the ability to sing at sight complicated melodic and rhythmic patterns and to take similar patterns from dictation. Emphasis on harmonic dictation as it relates to functional analysis and chord symbols. Prerequisite: MUS 1123. (As needed)

2113. Harmony I. A study of seventh and ninth chords, the secondary dominant chord group, and modal mixtures. Emphasis on the use of these chords and their function in tonal harmony including modulation. Sight-singing, ear training and keyboard harmony are included. Prerequisite: MUS 1123 or equivalent.

2142. 16th Century Counterpoint. A study of the sixteenth-century contrapuntal technique. Prerequisite: MUS 2123. (As needed)

2312. Conducting. Study of basic skills for good choral and instrumental conducting; musical terms and vocabulary necessary for interpretation of scores; laboratory experience in conducting vocal and instrumental ensembles. (Fall, odd years)

2322. Orchestration and Arranging. A study of transposition, range, and tonal color of musical instruments and their application in arranging for various ensembles. Prerequisite: MUS 2123 or equivalent. (Spring, even years)

2701-4. Special Topics in Music.

- 3003. Elementary Music Education Methods for Musicians. This course is designed to develop music educators who will teach music creatively and with an understanding of child development processes. For music majors only. (Spring, even years)
- 3013. Music Experiences for Children. Fundamentals of music and the use of autoharp and a variety of untuned instruments are combined to give the future classroom or church school teacher confidence in a musical experience. For non-music majors only. (Fall, Summer)
- 3112. Brass and Percussion Methods and Materials. Students will be required to perform at the beginning level on brass and percussion instruments and to study and demonstrate proper teaching techniques for these instruments. (Fall, even years)
- 3122. Woodwind Methods and Materials. Students will be required to perform at the beginning level on woodwind instruments and to study and demonstrate proper teaching techniques for these instruments. (Spring, odd years)
- 3213, 3223W. Music History. Study of music from primitive societies through the early Christian church and further development of western civilization. Special emphasis is placed on the Baroque, Classical, Romantic, and twentieth-century periods. (Alternate years)
- 3302. Vocal Pedagogy. The science and technique of teaching basic vocal production to others. Designed for all involved in teaching any form of vocal music. (Spring, even years)
- 3312. Piano Pedagogy. The science and technique of piano teaching. Emphasis on current methods of teaching, piano literature, motor skills learning and the history of piano. (As needed)
- 3513. Church Music. The history and the use of church music including hymnology. The course is designed to meet the needs of ministers and those interested as directors of Christian Education or as directors of church music. (Spring, odd years)
- 4022. Form. A study of compositional procedures from Medieval times to the present. Emphasis on major forms of the past 300 years, such as fugue, sonata, and symphony. Prerequisite: MUS 2123 or equivalent. (As needed)
- 4032. Composition. Composition of original works, using standard musical forms, such as song-form, invention, fugue, sonata and symphony. Taught on demand and in individual lessons. (Spring)
- 4131. Marching Band Techniques. A study of current stylistic trends in marching band with emphasis on teaching techniques. (Spring, odd years)
- 4141. Band Administration. The study of administrative responsibilities of the band director including selection and purchase of equipment, fund raising, publicity, and group travel. (Spring, odd years)
- 4423. Vocal and Choral Methods and Materials/Conducting. Vocal and choral techniques, choral rehearsal techniques, and choral literature are emphasized. (Fall, even years)
- 4501-3. Independent Study in Music.
- 4701-4. Special Topics in Music. Selected topics from the field of music not otherwise included in the departmental curriculum. Topic to be announced each time the course is offered. Permission of instructor required.

Ensembles

1711. Lambuth Concert Choir. A selected group of students performing fine choral literature. Annual tour and special engagements. Three hours rehearsal per week. One credit each semester. Auditions spring and fall.

1731. Lambuth Concert Band. Study and performance of quality band literature. Four rehearsals weekly. One credit hour per semester. Annual tour and special engagements.

Kaleidoscope. A selected group of singers with instrumental accompaniment which performs in the jazz and popular idiom. Annual tour, seasonal and special engagements. Membership is by audition in the fall. Members must also participate in Concert Choir 1711. No Credit.

Jazz Band. A selected ensemble performing a variety of "Big Band" literature in jazz and popular styles. Three rehearsals weekly. Annual tour and special engagements. Membership is by audition. No credit.

Applied Music

Instruction in piano, organ, voice and the instruments of the band and orchestra are offered by the department. One hour credit in an area of performance will be given for one thirty-minute lesson per week and a minimum of six hours weekly practice; two hours credit requires one forty-five minute lesson per week and a minimum of twelve hours of weekly practice. Students enrolled in the Bachelor of Music degree program may register for three or four hours credit per semester. Three hours credit requires the equivalent of two thirty-minutes lessons per week with a minimum of fifteen hours of weekly practice plus related work as required by the instructor; four hours credit requires the equivalent of two thirty-minute lessons per week with a minimum of 18-24 hours weekly practice plus related work as required by the instructor.

1811-4. Piano.

1831-4. Organ.

1851-4. Voice.

1871-4. Instruments.

1881-4. Classical Guitar. Prerequisite Beginning Class. Guitar or previous experience. Instructor's permission.

1911-1921. Voice Class. An introduction to vocal production and techniques. Efficient and artistic use of the voice as well as refinement of breath control and enunciation is the goal. A mixed class offers opportunity to contrast problems of men's and women's voices. Primarily for those who have not studied voice previously. Limited enrollment. Meets once a week.

1931-1941. Beginning Class Piano. For those with little or no keyboard experience. Elementary rhythmic and melodic reading with emphasis upon chords and simple melody and accompaniment style. Meets once per week. Recommended for non-majors and those wishing to meet piano proficiency requirements.

1951. Beginning Class Guitar. For those with little or no guitar experience. Beginning guitar techniques, rhythmic and melodic reading with emphasis on chords. Meets once per week.

Philosophy

Professor J. Kenneth Wilkerson, Chairperson

Minor Requirements:

Philosophy 2353W	3 hours
Philosophy 2423W	3 hours
Philosophy 3513W	3 hours
Philosophy Electives	9 hours

1013. Introduction to Philosophy. An introduction to the enduring philosophical questions regarding the nature of reality, value, and truth. A broad exploration of responses to the questions aimed at engaging students in formulating their own responses to them. (Spring, even years)

2353W. Great Thinkers of the Western World: Ancient and Medieval. A study of representative philosophers in the West from the early Greeks to the end of the Medieval era. (Fall, even years)

2423W. Great Thinkers of the Western World: Modern. A study of representative philosophers in the West from the Renaissance to the present. (Spring, odd years)

2613. Studies in Philosophy. Studies of selected individuals, schools of thought and ideas in philosophy—eastern and western. Specific topics announced each time the course is offered. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor. (As needed)

2701-4. Special Topics in Philosophy.

3333. Classics of Eastern Thought. A survey of representative selections from the basic, formative writings, of the religions and philosophies of India, China, and other Eastern societies. (See REL 3333) (Spring, odd years)

3433. Marxism. A study of the philosophical issues and assumptions in Marxist thought from its background and early formulations to the present. (As needed)

3513W. Ethics. A study of normative theories of ethics and an application of those theories to contemporary moral issues. The course offers a blend of theory evaluation and practical application to issues of personal and social moral responsibility. (Fall, odd years)

3603W. Aesthetics. An exploration of responses to the following questions: What is a work of art? What is aesthetic experience? What is artistic creativity? How does one evaluate works of art? The study includes a brief historical survey of responses to these questions but is aimed primarily at engaging students in formulating their own responses to them. (Fall, even years)

3753. Logic. An investigation of informal and formal reasoning, classical and modern syllogistic inference, symbolic and mathematical logic and the foundation of the scientific method. (Spring)

4701-4. Special Topics in Philosophy.

Political Science

Associate Professor Robert H. Mathis, Chairperson, Department of Social Studies

Assistant Professor: R. Austin

The Department of Political Science offers the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree. The major consists of a concentration in the four most common areas of political science: U.S. Government and Law; Comparative Government; International Relations; and Political Theory. Students frequently elect to pursue careers in government service, law, and teaching.

Major Requirements:

Political Science	30 hours
(including POL 2113, 2213 and 4013)
History 1013 or 1023	3 hours
Sociology 2113	3 hours
Sociology 4543 or Business 3013	3 hours
Economics 2033 or 2043	3 hours

Fifteen of the total 30 hours in Political Science must be upper level courses; nine of these must be at Lambuth.

Minor Requirements:

Political Science 2113	3 hours
Political Science 2213	3 hours
Political Science electives (six hours must be upper level courses)	12 hours

2013W. Introduction to Political Theory. An introduction to the study of government and politics centered on the ideologies of conservatism, liberalism, socialism, communism and fascism.

2083. Social Geography. This course emphasizes the social, cultural, historical, political and economic characteristics of the various physical environments of the world and their consequences for human existence. (See SOC 2083.)

2113. United States Government and Politics. The basics of U.S. government and democracy: the Constitution, the Bill of Rights, public opinion, public policy, and elections.

2413. Public Administration. An introduction to the concepts and practices of organization and management in the executive departments at the national, state and local levels.

2732. Law and the Courts. Examination of the U.S. legal process and courtroom procedure. Designed for students interested in law school. May include field work in the Jackson criminal justice system and participation in the national mock trial tournament.

2701-4. Special Topics in Political Science.

3013. Comparative Government. A comparative inquiry into the politics of selected regions and countries. Africa and the Middle East, Latin America, Europe, and Asia are offered on a rotating basis. This course may be repeated with a change in topic.

3123W. Congress and the President. The relationship between the legislative and executive branches in the U.S. government's separation of powers system.

3213. United States Foreign Policy. Selected problems of U.S. foreign relations in the major regions of the world and the U.S. foreign policy process.

3223W. History of Political Thought. A study of normative political philosophy in the classic texts of Aristotle, Plato, Hobbes, Locke, Mill, Marx, etc.

3243. Political Behavior. An examination of political attitudes, their formation and effects. Specific topics include political socialization, public opinion, voting behavior, and political party and interest group activity.

3313. International Organization. The United Nations' role in the modern world. Students research global issues from the perspective of selected countries in order to formulate resolutions for the simulated U.N. debate. May include participation in a model U.N. field trip.

3433. Metropolitan Studies. The development and growth of urban areas are analyzed in terms of land use patterns, political and social organization. The political, economic and social differences among rural, suburban, and urban areas are investigated.

4013. Senior Seminar in History and Political Science. A capstone experience for History and Political Science majors to review and integrate their academic course work, strengthen their understanding of methodology in the two fields, and relate their academic preparation to post-graduation goals.

4113. Constitutional Law. Examination of the U.S. constitution and Supreme Court, the constraints on judicial power, rulings on civil rights and liberties.

4213. International Law. The nature and source of international law centered on the moral basis for the laws of war, i.e. the just war and justice-in-war.

4501-3. Independent Study in Political Science. Designed for the advanced student who desires to pursue individual research in a specific area of political science under the supervision of one or more faculty members. Open to the upper division students with instructor's permission.

4701-4. Special Topics in Political Science.

4801-8. Internship I. Content varies. Designed to provide students with applied experience at local offices and agencies in their field of study.

Pre-Professional Programs

Students wishing to take courses leading to the ministry, dentistry, engineering, medical technology, law, medicine, nursing, pharmacy, religious education, and other professions may prepare for these professions at Lambuth University. Those students who wish to enter a professional school before graduating from Lambuth may earn a Lambuth degree through the Three-Year Residence Program (see Special Programs). This can be done simultaneously with the completion of a degree at a professional school. The following are suggested programs and courses:

Engineering

Advisor: Professor R. Barnes

Admission requirements to engineering schools vary and students wishing to enter such schools are advised to contact the school of their choice for specific details concerning those requirements. Lambuth does not offer a major in engineering, but offers three tracks for students who wish to become engineers. Track One is recommended for students with strong mathematical backgrounds; Track Two is recommended for students who enter Lambuth without sufficient mathematical skill to start at the calculus level; Track Three is recommended for those who wish to earn a Lambuth degree and who may wish to do so through the Three-Year Residence Program.

Track One

First Year:

English 1013, 1023	6 hours
Chemistry 1314, 1324	8 hours
Mathematics 2114, 2124	8 hours
Physics 2304, 2314	8 hours
Electives	3 hours
	33 hours

Second Year:

Mathematics 3114 (Fall)	4 hours
Mathematics 3213, 4213, or 4313 (Spring)	3 hours
Computer Science 1253	3 hours
English Literature	3 hours
Economics 2043	3 hours
Communications 2003	3 hours
Electives	13 hours
	32 hours

Track Two

First Year:

Mathematics 1103, 1113	6 hours
English 1013, 1023	6 hours
Chemistry 1314, 1324	8 hours
Electives	12 hours
	32 hours

Second Year:

Mathematics 2114, 2124	8 hours
Physics 2304, 2314	8 hours
Communications 2003	3 hours
English Literature	3 hours
Computer Science	3 hours
Electives	7 hours
	32 hours

Third Year:

Mathematics 3114 (Fall)	4 hours
Mathematics 3213, 4213 or 4313 (Spring)	3 hours
Economics 2043	3 hours
Electives	22 hours
	32 hours

Track Three

Students who wish to earn a Lambuth degree through the Three-Year Residence Program should follow either Track One or Track Two and use their elective hours and additional hours, if needed, to complete Lambuth graduation requirements (the Lambuth Core, a major and a minor to equal 96 hours). Students following Track Three are strongly urged to monitor their progress toward Lambuth graduation requirements through an appropriate advisor.

Health Professions

Advisors: Professors Davis, Hawkes

Admissions requirements for programs in the health sciences vary considerably among professional schools. Students pursuing pre-professional programs should contact the professional school of their choice for specific details concerning those requirements. At Lambuth University they should consult the Pre-Medical Advisory Committee before formalizing their programs.

Typical admission requirements based on those for the University of Tennessee Center for the Health Sciences are included in the suggested programs on the following pages.

Suggested Program for Pre-Dentistry, Pre-Medicine Pre-Optometry

First Year

Biology 1314, 1324	8 hours
Chemistry 1314, 1324	8 hours
English 1013, 1023	6 hours
Math 2114	4 hours
Computer Science 1003	3 hours
Physical Education	2 hours
Freshman Seminar 1001	1 hour
	32 hours

Second Year

Chemistry 3214, 3224	8 hours
Literature (writing course)	3 hours
Communications 2003	3 hours
Religion	6 hours
Electives (academic major)	8 hours
Electives (minor)	4 hours
	32 hours

Third Year

Physics 2214, 2224	8 hours
Humanities Elective	3 hours
JRS Interdisciplinary Course	3 hours
Electives (academic major)	12 hours
Electives (minor)	6 hours
	32 hours

Fourth Year

Social Science Elective	3 hours
SRS Interdisciplinary Course	3 hours
Electives (major)	16 hours
Electives (minor)	11 hours
	33 hours

Suggested Program for Pre-Medical Technology, Pre-Pharmacy and Pre-Physical Therapy

First Year

Biology 1314, 1324	8 hours
Chemistry 1314, 1324	8 hours
English 1013, 1023	6 hours
Math 1113	3 hours
Computer Science 1003	3 hours
Freshman Seminar 1001	1 hour
	29 hours

Second Year

Chemistry 3214, 3224	8 hours
Literature	3 hours
Communications 2003	3 hours
Physics 2214, 2224	8 hours
Psychology 2013	3 hours
Sociology 2513	3 hours
	28 hours

In addition to the above courses, the following are required for admission to Professional school programs:

Pharmacy–Biology 3614, English 2223W, a statistics course and calculus

Medical Technology–Biology 2014 and 2024

Physical Therapy–Psychology 2023, Biology 2014 and 2024, Math 3013, and 21 hours of electives (Chemistry 3214, 3224 are not required for this program and eight (8) hours of coursework can be substituted in the curriculum above.)

Students selecting the Lambuth degree option program will select additional courses meeting both Lambuth University and departmental requirements.

Suggested Program for Pre-Nursing, Cytotechnology, Dental Hygiene and Health Information Management

First Year

Biology 1314, 1324	8 hours
Chemistry 1314, 1324	8 hours
English 1013, 1023	6 hours
Mathematics 1113, 3013	6 hours
Psychology 2013	3 hours
Computer Science 1253	3 hours
	34 hours

Pre-Professional Programs

Second Year

Biology 2014, 2024, and 3614	12 hours
Nutrition (HME 1023)	3 hours
Psychology 2023	3 hours
World Literature 2213W	3 hours
Sociology 2113, 2313, 2513	9 hours
Communications 2003	3 hours
	33 hours

In addition, the following courses are required for admission to the professional school programs in:

Cytotechnology: Biology 2314 and 4114 plus 13 hours of electives.

Health Information Management: Accounting 2113, 2123, Management 3093, 3243 plus 11 hours of electives.

Law

Admission to law school usually depends on the student's personal academic records in addition to the score earned on the Law School Admissions Test. Majors usually recommended at Lambuth include English, History, Political Science, Sociology. Fluency in written and oral use of the English language, understanding of Western political, social and economic institutions, and the ability to think critically and independently are essential.

Pre-Ministerial

It is strongly recommended that those students who desire pre-ministerial status should major or minor in religion. For those pre-ministerial students who wish to major in religion, the requirements are found under the Religion Department. For pre-ministerial students seeking aid, see Pre-Ministerial Grant under Financial Aid.

School of Business, Education and Social Sciences

Psychology

Associate Professor Robert H. Mathis, Chairperson, Department of Social Studies
Assistant Professors: Bowers, Dietrich

Major Requirements:

Sociology 4543	3 hours
Biology or Chemistry	8 hours
(as part of Lambuth Core requirements)
Psychology 2013, 2023, 3114, 3223, 3513, 3753, 3853, 4123 and 4652	27 hours
Psychology electives	6 hours
(Biology 2014 and/or 2024 may be used as Psychology elective hours.)

Minor Requirements:

Psychology 2013	3 hours
Psychology electives	15 hours
(Six hours must be at 3000 or 4000 level and taken at Lambuth. Biology 2014, 2024 and/or Sociology 4543 may be used as Psychology elective hours. Psychology 3114 and Sociology 4543 are recommended for those seeking graduate study in Psychology or related fields.)

2013. General Psychology. An introduction to the scientific study of the behavior of organisms, focusing on areas such as research methods, biological foundations, cognition, abnormal behavior, social processes and development.

2023. Child and Adolescent Psychology. Study of the development of children's behavior from conception through adolescence, including physical, emotional, cognitive and social development. Such issues as genetic versus environmental influences in development, child-rearing practices and their influence on behavior and stages of development are considered. Emphasis is placed on empirical data and current research in child and adolescent development.

2701-4. Special Topics in Psychology.

3114. Experimental Methods. Emphasizes experimental, quasi-experimental, and correlational methods as well as statistical techniques that have been significant in obtaining the basic empirical data of psychology. An independent research project is required. Prerequisites: PSY 2013 and SOC 4543.

3223. Theories of Personality. A study of personality development in terms of various personality theories, with emphasis on interpersonal relations, social and cultural factors. Prerequisite: PSY 2013 or 2023.

3304. Psychology of Exceptional Children and Individual Differences. (See EDU 3304) Fall and Spring.

3314. Educational Psychology. The application of psychological laws, principles, concepts, and knowledge to the problems of the educational process. Practical applications on an individual basis are required as lab work. Prerequisite: PSY 2013 or 2023.

3323. Introduction to Psychological Testing. Survey of the development of psychological tests, interpretation of test results, criteria for selection of standardized tests, and the use of psychological tests across various disciplines.

3513. Abnormal Psychology. A systematic study of the classification, symptoms, etiology and treatment method—both traditional and modern—of maladaptive or “psychopathological” behaviors. Psychological, biological and sociocultural theories of abnormal behavior are considered. Emphasis is placed on current empirical research in a sociopsychological framework. Prerequisite: PSY 2013.

3613. Social Psychology. Study of the factors which determine the effects of others on the individual's behavior, including attitudes and beliefs. Various theories are considered and used to explain social behavior. Traditional topics as well as those most important in current times are explored. Emphasis is placed on current empirical research. Prerequisite: PSY 2013.

3753. Cognitive Psychology. An introduction to the study of mental processes. Topics to be covered include attention, learning, memory, language, and complex processes such as decision making. Prerequisite: PSY 2013.

3853. Physiological Psychology. An exploration of the relationship between human physiology and behavior. Topics such as sensation, perception, psychopathology, learning, emotions, motivation, consciousness, and motor behavior will be addressed. Prerequisite: PSY 2013, BIO 1014 and 1024 or two equivalent courses in BIO or CHM.

Psychology

4123. History of Psychology. A comprehensive study of the beginnings of science and the historical background of contemporary theories in psychology. The relationship between empirical research and theories is emphasized. Prerequisite: PSY 2013.

4213. Clinical Counseling Psychology. A survey of the methods and professions of clinical and counseling psychology with emphasis on counseling techniques. Opportunity is provided for students to experience various counseling interactions. The history of major concepts and current issues of the area are explored as well as clinical and counseling psychology as professions. Prerequisite: PSY 2013 and 3513.

4423. Psychology of Language Development. A study of language development from birth to maturity with emphasis on the relationship between language and thinking. Fall.

Admissions

Admissions policies, academic standards, and student life are ways Lambuth tries to reflect its purpose and ideals. Therefore, Lambuth University admits students who subscribe to its ideals and objectives and who are qualified by intellect, previous education, emotional and physical health, and character to do college work. Those who, in the judgment of the Admissions Committee, are thus qualified will find a warm welcome at Lambuth. Attendance at Lambuth University is a privilege which carries with it a responsibility to observe the University's regulations and standards.

Admission Requirements

Among applicants meeting the following standards, the Admissions Committee will admit those students who, in its judgement, best fit the Lambuth learning environment. The Admissions Committee has the discretion to admit or deny any qualified student to Lambuth University.

Freshmen. For regular admission to the freshman class, Lambuth requires that a student graduate from an approved secondary school and have a 20 on the ACT (SAT 930, recentered) and a 2.000 overall high school grade point average. Students with a 19 on the ACT (SAT 890, recentered) and a 2.500 overall high school grade point average or an 18 on the ACT (SAT 840, recentered) and a 3.000 high school grade point average may be admitted with permission of the Academic Dean. Applicants may be admitted with a state high school equivalency diploma (minimum score, 45) in lieu of a regular high school diploma. A 45 score on the GED is considered to be a 2.000. Applications not meeting the above standards may be reviewed by the Admissions Committee which may grant special admission after considering test scores, grades, rank in class, school and community activities, and recommendations in its review of applications. It is highly recommended that as many units as possible be taken from the areas of foreign language, history, mathematics, natural science, and English.

Advanced Placement, CLEP, Military, and other Credit. Entering freshmen who successfully pass Advanced Placement Examinations or College Level Examinations prepared and administered by or under the auspices of the College Entrance Examination Board, or other comparable examinations, may be eligible to receive credit for certain courses. Application for such credit should be made to the Academic Dean by submitting examination scores. A maximum of 32 semester hours may be earned by examination or extra-institutional means. Military credit (including two P.E. hours for Basic Training) as well as other credit sanctioned by the American Council on Education may be acceptable to Lambuth with appropriate evaluation and approval. Lambuth does not evaluate prior experiential learning for academic credit.

Early Admission Program. An occasional superior student may be eligible for admission to the freshman year of college upon completion of the junior year in high school. To be eligible for such early admission, a student must have the recommendation of the high school principal, a grade point average of at least 3.0, and a 25 or higher composite score on the ACT.

Transfer Students. A student transferring from another institution must present an official transcript of the previous college record(s), and a statement of social standing from the institution last attended. Transfer students will be subject to the same academic regulations as Lambuth students. These regulations apply to transfer work that is acceptable at Lambuth University. Excess quality points earned on work taken elsewhere will not be allowed to make up for a deficiency in quality points on work taken at Lambuth. Students wishing to transfer to Lambuth must be eligible to return to their immediately previous institution and have a 2.00 GPA on all transfer work accepted by Lambuth. Exceptions to this policy may be appealed to the Admissions Committee. Transfer students with fewer than twelve transferable semester hours from an accredited college or university must satisfy Freshmen admission requirements. Coursework transferred for credit must be completed at an institution accredited as degree-granting by a regional accrediting body at the time the coursework was completed. Some exceptions are allowable such as foreign institutions and credit recommended by the American Council on Education for education in a non-collegiate setting, such as military school, and faculty evaluation of credit earned from a non-degree granting institution accredited within a particular specialty.

International Students. To allow for adequate processing time, it is suggested that international students apply by May 1. Applicants whose native language is not English need to provide evidence of English proficiency. This may be done in one of the following ways:

1. Results of the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). If you cannot locate a testing center in your country which administers the TOEFL, you may contact the Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey 08540, U.S.A.

(or)

2. Results of the American College Testing Program (ACT). Contact: ACT, P.O. Box 414, Iowa City, Iowa 52243, U.S.A.

(or)

3. Results of the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT). Contact: College Entrance Examination Board, Box 592, Princeton, New Jersey, 08540, U.S.A.

Other approved English proficiency tests may be considered.

Special Students. Persons who have not fulfilled admission requirements or who do not seek academic credit toward a degree at Lambuth may apply to be admitted as special students. Appropriate information about this status may be obtained from the Office of Admissions. If a special student desires to become a degree candidate, he/she must make application to the Admissions Committee for change

High School Students. A limited number of high school students may enroll for college credit courses at Lambuth. To be admitted to such courses, a high school student must have earned at least a "B" average or its equivalent, must have the recommendation of the high school principal or guidance counselor and must have the permission of parents or guardians. Credits and grades earned by these students will be considered valid college work upon the student's graduation from high school.

Home-schooled students. Lambuth welcomes applications from home-schooled students. Those wishing initial college entry at the University should contact the Office of Admissions for information concerning their application procedures.

Admission Procedure

All students should apply for admission as far in advance of the opening of the University as practicable, particularly if housing accommodations on the campus are desired. It is not necessary to have finished high school before making application for admission to Lambuth; a transcript showing credit earned for six or more semesters may be followed later by a supplementary transcript showing the completion of the work. Final approval of any application is contingent upon graduation from secondary school except for those students eligible for admission under the early admission programs. Intentional falsification of any information will result in exclusion from Lambuth. Students admitted to Lambuth will have grades and credits withheld and will not be permitted future enrollment until all materials required for admission and registration are on file in the Registrar's Office.

For Freshmen.

1. Complete application form and return it with $25.00 evaluation fee (non-refundable and credited toward tuition) to the Office of Admissions.
2. Have official high school transcripts sent to the Office of Admissions.
3. Have official ACT or SAT scores sent to Office of Admissions.
4. If interested in financial aid, contact the Director of Financial Aid immediately.

For Transfer Students.

1. Complete application form and return it with $25.00 evaluation fee (non-refundable and credited toward tuition) to the Office of Admissions.
2. Have official transcript from each college previously attended sent to the Office of Admissions.
3. Have Transfer Student Evaluation Form (available at Lambuth Office of Admissions) completed by Dean of Students at last institution attended.
4. If seeking financial aid, contact the Director of Financial Aid immediately.

For Former Students.

Former students of Lambuth must apply for readmission through the Office of the Registrar. This application will request current information about the student and an account of educational experiences during the absence from Lambuth. Students who have been dismissed for academic reasons must contact the Dean of Records to arrange for readmission. The University has the discretion to readmit or deny readmission to any qualified student.

Tennessee Statute.

Tennessee State Law states that effective July 1, 1998, proof of immunization with two doses of Measles, Mumps and Rubella vaccines, administered on or after the first birthday, will be required for admission into all universities and colleges with an enrollment of greater than two hundred students. Further information relative to this law can be found in the Lambuth Student Handbook.

Financial Information

Lambuth strives to keep the cost of a college education within reach of every man and woman. The Director of Financial Aid is available to advise students regarding their financial situations. Charges listed are for the regular fall or spring term for the 1999-2000 university year. The University reserves the privilege of changing any or all charges at the beginning of the term if necessary to meet budget requirements.

Payments

Entering students planning to enroll and reside on campus are required to pay a room deposit of $100.00. Requests for specific residence halls, rooms, and room-mates are granted according to the date the room deposit is received. If the deposit is not received by May 1, the University cannot guarantee that space is available. Entering students not residing on campus are required to submit a $100.00 class reservation fee. All returning students planning to reside on campus are required to pay an advance room deposit of $100.00. These payments will be credited to the students' accounts. No scholarship, loan, or other award may be applied against the advance payment.

Full payment of tuition, room, board, fees and other charges will be required before classes begin each semester. The cost of an education at Lambuth is of concern to students, their families, and to the University. For students who cannot afford to pay in full, Lambuth will offer a Deferred Payment Plan to assist students in financial planning. Visa, Mastercard, American Express, and Discover are accepted for payment up to the approved limit for charges to these accounts. The four-payment deferred plan will be calculated as follows:*

1st Payment—One fourth of balance must be paid the day of registration for each semester.

2nd Payment—September 24	Fall semester
February 11	Spring semester

3rd Payment—October 22	Fall semester
March 10	Spring semester

4th Payment—November 26	Fall semester
April 14	Spring semester

If the full payment due is not received on the due date, Lambuth will apply a monthly service fee of 1% to the total outstanding balance on the account. A student must settle his or her account for the current and/or any previous semester including charges accumulated during the present term of enrollment before a grade report, transcript or diploma can be released, and before being eligible to re-enroll for a subsequent semester.

It is the student's responsibility to make arrangements for all financial aid, outside scholarships, loan, and other payment plans prior to the beginning of the semester. All pending financial aid approved by the financial aid director will be considered, excluding work study.*

Refunds

When a student in receipt of federal student aid withdraws from the University during a semester, a refund calculation will be made based upon one of the following pursuant to Federal Student Aid Regulations:

A Pro-Rata Refund will be performed on students who are enrolled as first-time Lambuth students if they withdraw before 50% of the semester has elapsed.

Any student who is not a first-time student at Lambuth who receives federal student aid will have a refund calculated in accordance with Federal Regulations by both the institutional policy as well as the Federal Refund Policy. The calculation providing the largest refund will be used. Students who withdraw and who have not received federal student aid will be subject only to the Institutional policy.

A. Institutional Policy

Period of Enrollment	Percent of Tuition to be Refunded
Within one week	90%
Within two weeks	70%
Within three weeks	40%
Within four weeks	20%
Over four weeks	No Refund

B. Federal Policy

1. Withdrawal on first day of class, refund will be not less than 100% of the student's institutional charges, less an administrative fee, if any;
2. Withdrawal after first day of class, up to and including the end of the first 10% (in time) of the period of enrollment, refund will be at least 90% of the student's institutional charges, less an administrative fee, if any;
3. Withdrawal after the first 10% of the period of enrollment, up to and including the end of the first 25% (in time) of the period of enrollment, refund will be at least 50% of the student's institutional charges, less an administrative fee, if any;
4. Withdrawal after the first 25% of the period of enrollment, up to and including the end of the first 50% (in time) of the period of enrollment, refund will be at least 25% of the student's institutional charges, less an administrative fee, if any;
5. Withdrawal after the first 50% will result in 0% refund.

At the end of each semester, students who receive federal aid and who receive a grade point average of 0.00 but did not officially withdraw from the University are subject to a refund review. The Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid will determine the last date of class attendance for the student; if that date falls during a refund period, a refund calculation will be performed pursuant to federal regulations.

May and summer term refunds will be prorated on a similar basis depending on the length of the term. A refund schedule is published for these terms.

Room charges and special fees are not refundable. Charges for meals are refundable on a prorated basis through the fourth week of classes. Periods of enrollment are based upon the day of registration and the day of formal withdrawal as recorded in the Office of the Registrar. Students dismissed for academic or disciplinary reasons are not entitled to refunds.

Tuition and Fees

The tuition charge is $3,909.00 per semester for students enrolling for 12-17 credit hours. Students registering for fewer than 12 credit hours will pay $235.00 per hour. Students registering for more than 17 credit hours will pay $150.00 per hour above 17 except when the overload is caused by applied music, Honors, or one-hour physical education activities. (The tuition charge does not include private lessons and/or special fees.)

A student must be registered for seven or more hours in both the Fall and Spring terms to receive a copy of the Lantern (yearbook) without additional charge. Resources including special counseling, the Learning Enrichment Center, Career Planning and Testing Services and tutorial services are available at no extra charge to all students registered for 12 or more hours. Students registered for fewer than 12 hours are eligible for all religious activities; library services; admission to home athletic contests; fine arts programs (excluding Lambuth Theater productions) and social events; use of University athletic facilities at regularly scheduled periods. Other resources, including services and the Learning Enrichment Center are available at minimum additional charges. Information concerning these services and charges is available in the Student Development Office.

Room and Board

The charges for room and board are listed in the summary of expenses for residence hall students. The University does not permit refunds on room and board due to absences, except in cases as set forth in the paragraph on refunds. Board charges include 19 meals per week; breakfast on Saturday and Sunday is not served. Most of the rooms in Harris, Spangler, and Carney-Johnston Halls have connecting baths for each two rooms, built-in wardrobes, chests, study desks, beds, chairs, mattresses, etc. A few rooms have private baths with all other furnishings listed above and may be obtained at extra cost. Each room in Sprague is furnished with two desks, chairs, a chest of drawers, twin beds, mattresses and two closets. Students furnish bed-linens, pillows, blankets, mattress covers, soap, towels, rugs and draperies as may be desired by the individual student.

Financial Aid

Lambuth offers numerous ways for students to finance their Lambuth education. A Lambuth University Scholarship/Financial Aid application may be requested from either the Admissions Office or the Financial Aid Office. The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) may also be requested from these offices or from a high school guidance counselor.

Lambuth students may apply for all federal programs offered through the United States Department of Education. These programs are described in detail in the following pages. All students who need financial assistance are encouraged to apply for Federal student aid as recent program changes may make all students eligible for some form of Federal aid.

Applicants for any financial aid must be accepted for admission to Lambuth before any award may be discussed or offered. In order to receive priority consideration for financial assistance, students should apply for both Federal aid and Lambuth aid by February 15. Priority in awarding is given to students who are accepted for admission and have turned in all documents by March 15. (For all students starting in the spring semester, all documents should be turned in by November 15.)

Satisfactory Academic Progress. The United States Department of Education requires students receiving federal assistance to make academic progress toward graduation. A student must make progress toward a degree both in the number of hours earned in any term as well as cumulative hours earned for all terms and grade point average in any term or cumulative grade point average for all terms. The following quantitative and qualitative measures are used to determine satisfactory progress at Lambuth University.

Years	Hours Earned/ Attempted	Minimum Hours Attempted	Semester G.P.A.	Cumulative G.P.A.
1	24/27	0-27	1.75	1.75
2	50/59	28-59	1.90	1.90
3	76/91	60-91	2.00	2.00
4	104/128	92-128	2.00	2.00
5	128/160	129-160	2.00	2.00

Adjustments to the above time frames are made for part-time students.

Students receiving federal assistance may receive such aid up to 160 credit hours attempted. Students who have attempted in excess of 160 credit hours are automatically suspended. Students who receive all F's or W's for a semester are suspended from further financial aid unless extenuating circumstances are documented and accepted by the Lambuth Director of Financial Aid. Any appeal of a Financial Aid

Suspension, for whatever reason, must be made in writing to the Lambuth Director of Financial Aid.

Also, any student placed on Academic Suspension is automatically placed on Financial Aid Suspension. Appeals must be made in writing both to the Academic Dean and to the Director of Scholarships and Financial Aid.

Please note that in order to establish and maintain eligibility for federal aid, a student must attend all classes for which they registered; attendance must continue though the entire semester.

How to Apply for Federal Student Aid

Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as soon after January 1 as possible. This application determines eligibility for all federal programs including student and parent loans. Be sure Lambuth is listed as one of the schools on the FAFSA.

Returning students and students who have applied for admission are encouraged to submit their completed FAFSA's to Lambuth for electronic completion. By offering this option, Lambuth is able to help reduce processing time by several weeks.

The Financial Aid Office is required by law to obtain IRS tax return forms and other documents from many students and families. Please provide these only when requested to do so by the Financial Aid Office. If these forms are requested, no financial aid may be awarded until the Financial Aid Office has received and processed them. Students who turn in documents after November 1 for the Fall semester or after February 1 for the Spring semester cannot be assured of receiving financial assistance for that semester.

STUDENTS SHOULD SUBMIT A NEW APPLICATION FOR ALL FEDERAL STUDENT AID EACH YEAR TO BE RECONSIDERED FOR AID THE NEXT YEAR.

How to Apply for Lambuth Scholarships/Grants

Returning students must complete an Application for Institutional Aid by February 15 each year. Incoming freshmen and transfers accepted for admission to Lambuth by our priority deadline of February 15 will be considered for institutional aid based upon the information in their admissions file.

STUDENTS SHOULD SUBMIT A NEW SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION FOR ALL LAMBUTH AID BY FEBRUARY 15 EACH YEAR TO BE RECONSIDERED FOR AID THE NEXT YEAR.

Federal/State Grants

Any student accepted for admission to Lambuth may be considered for institutional aid. However, in order to be considered for federal and state student aid, individuals must have provided Lambuth with either a certified high school diploma or a passing GED score.

Federal Pell Grant. These grants range from $400 to $3,125 for the 1999-2000 academic year for those who qualify. Use the FAFSA to apply.

Federal Supplemental Grant (SEOG). Awarded under a federal aid program, this grant is available to students with exceptional financial need who are eligible for a

Financial Aid

Pell Grant. Early application is necessary to receive consideration for this grant, as the priority date for completing files is March 15.

Tennessee Student Assistance Award (TSAA). Tennessee residents apply for this grant when applying for a Pell Grant. Awards vary and may be as high as $3,690 for full-time students, but are also available for part-time students. The state's established deadline is May 1; however, it is best to apply by February 15 to receive consideration for this grant as funds are expended well before the deadline.

Lambuth Scholarships/Grants

These awards may not be combined with other funded aid from Lambuth unless specified in writing by the Lambuth University Director of Financial Aid. Scholarships funded by Lambuth may not be combined to exceed the cost of tuition and are for full-time students only.

Presidential Scholarship. Full tuition scholarships are offered to first time, incoming freshmen who have earned a minimum high school grade point average of 3.5 and a minimum 29 ACT score (or SAT equivalent). These are four year awards. Applicants must be accepted for admission by February 15 to be considered. A maximum of 17 hours of tuition charges per semester is covered by the scholarship. Students must maintain a 3.25 grade point average to retain this scholarship.

Hyde Scholarships. The J. R. Hyde Foundation has established a limited number of scholarships to be awarded for four years to qualified students of merit. These scholarships are based upon academic achievement, leadership and test scores. Recommendations for the Hyde Scholars are made from the pool of Presidential Scholars to the Foundation by the University. Selection, approval of students, and amounts of the award are made by the Hyde Foundation. Students must be accepted for admission by February 15 to be considered. Students must maintain a 3.25 grade point average to retain this scholarship.

Dean's Scholarship. Scholarships of varying amounts are awarded to incoming freshmen with a minimum high school grade point average of 3.0 and a minimum 25 ACT score (or SAT equivalent). These are four year awards. Students must maintain a 3.0 grade point average to retain this scholarship.

Other Institutional Awards. Lambuth offers a wide variety of Institutional awards for students who do not meet the qualifications for the Presidential or Dean's Scholarships. A minimum score of 18 on the ACT (or SAT equivalent) and a 2.00 grade point average are required; extracurricular activities are also considered. Amounts range from $1,000 to $3,000 annually. To be considered for these awards, students should be accepted for admission to Lambuth by February 15.

Adult Learner Discount. Students who have been out of high school for a minimum of eight years before enrolling at Lambuth are eligible to apply. This discount cannot be combined with other Lambuth aid, but can be combined with federal student aid.

Evening Student Discount. Part-time or full-time students who meet the Evening Student program qualifications and who have all classes scheduled to begin after 4:15 P.M. may apply for a discounted tuition rate. Such students may also apply for Federal aid, but not other Lambuth aid. Contact the Financial Aid Office for details.

Grants for Transfer Students

Phi Theta Kappa Scholarships. Scholarships have been designated for Phi Theta Kappa members who have graduated with an associates degree or have completed 60 semester hours of earned transferable credit. The student must be in good standing with Phi Theta Kappa and must submit a letter of recommendation from the Phi Theta Kappa campus advisor. The scholarship is for $3,200 per academic year and is renewable for the second year. These scholarships are for full-time students and may not be combined with any other Lambuth University funded aid, nor may they be combined with either the adult learner or evening student rates. A student must first be admitted to Lambuth to be eligible for this scholarship. Students receiving this award must maintain a 3.30 grade point average.

Transfer Scholarships. Scholarships have been designated for transfer students who have earned at least 12 semester hours. The scholarship amount is based upon the transfer grade point average and is renewable for the second year. Amounts range from $2,000 to $3,200 annually. These scholarships are for full-time students and may not be combined with any other Lambuth University funded aid, nor may they be combined with either the adult learner or evening student rates. A student must first be admitted to Lambuth to be eligible for this scholarship. Students who have attended a four-year institution will receive the Transfer Award. Each award carries a specific grade point average maintenance requirement.

Grants for United Methodist Students

Lambuth Grants may not be combined to exceed the cost of tuition.

Church Membership Grant. Lambuth University is supported in part by contributions from churches of the Memphis Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. Any student who has been a member of the United Methodist Church for a minimum of one year prior to admission at Lambuth University will be awarded a Church Membership Grant of $300 annually while remaining a full-time student at Lambuth.

Grants to Dependents of Ministers. A grant of up to 50% of tuition charges is given to the dependent spouse and/or children of full-time appointed United Methodist ministers when combined with the Church Membership Grant and other institutional aid. This grant may not be combined with other Lambuth funded aid without the written approval of the Lambuth University Director of Financial Aid.

United Methodist Scholarship. This scholarship is usually awarded in the amount of $500 per year. Scholarships are granted for one year; however, one may apply for renewal each year. One must be a full-time degree candidate at Lambuth University, an active, full member of the United Methodist Church for at least one year, able to establish need for financial aid, and have a grade point average of 3.0 or better during the prior year at Lambuth. The student must have obtained at least sophomore status. Applications will be mailed to current students in early March. The application deadline is April 15.

Financial Aid

Pre-Ministerial Grant. Endowed scholarships are available to students who are approved pre-ministerial candidates in the United Methodist Church. Approval is given by the Lambuth University Chaplain after a personal interview. The amount of financial aid varies depending upon individual status. Students in receipt of pre-ministerial scholarships are required to join the University vocation group and participate in certain other activities. Contact the Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid for an application.

The Bishop's Scholarship. Each year, Lambuth will award two full tuition pre-ministerial scholarships to incoming freshmen or transfers who have firm intentions of entering professional ministry in the United Methodist Church. Applicants must have a minimum of a 2.5 grade point average and a 20 on the ACT, plus be registered as a candidate with the Board of Ordained Ministry. Candidates must have exhibited a loyal involvement in their local church and demonstrate a vision for a call into ministry. Applications may be obtained from local pastors or from the Lambuth University Chaplain. Candidates will be required to complete an interview at Lambuth with a scholarship committee. Recipients will be required to maintain a 2.5 grade point average and full-time enrollment at Lambuth. This scholarship does not combine with any other Lambuth funded aid.

Loans

Federal Perkins Loan. The Federal Perkins Loan is funded by the federal government but is administered by Lambuth. Under this loan program, undergraduate students may receive $3000 per year for an aggregate amount of $15,000. Students begin repaying these loans nine months after either completing their education or leaving school. No interest is charged until repayment begins, and then a five percent annual charge is applied to the unpaid balance. Repayment may be extended up to ten years, at not less than $40.00 per month. Loan cancellation and deferment options are available. Each recipient must request an exit interview with the Loan Management Office upon graduation or termination of enrollment at Lambuth.

Federal Stafford Loan and Unsubsidized Stafford Loan. The Federal Stafford Guaranteed Student Loan Program enables both need-based and higher income students to participate in this program. The government pays the interest on need-based loans; the non need-based loans require the student to pay the interest while in school. The interest rate is set each July 1 for the next year and is a variable rate not to exceed 8.25%. Students may borrow at the following levels:

Freshmen	$2625 per year
Sophomores	$3500 per year
Juniors	$5500 per year
Seniors	$5500 per year

Students begin repaying these loans six months after they graduate, cease at least half-time attendance, or withdraw from school at a payment of at least $50 per month. The Financial Aid Office will conduct an entrance interview before the student receives their first loan, and an exit interview at the conclusion of the student's enrollment at Lambuth, if the student becomes enrolled for less than half-time, or withdraws.

Federal Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students (PLUS). The Federal PLUS Loan Program is a non-need based source of funds available to the parent of a dependent undergraduate student. Parents may apply to borrow up to the cost of attendance minus financial aid. The interest rate is variable, set each July 1, and is usually around seven to nine percent. The maximum allowed by law is nine percent, but may vary depending on the date of the first loan borrowed.

Work Programs

Students on one of the two student work programs are paid at the minimum wage rate on a monthly basis. Students whose charges at the University have not been paid in full are strongly encouraged to apply their earnings to their student accounts. Workstudy/Workshop awards are not considered a credit at registration as the students are paid only for the hours for which they work.

Federal College Work Study Program (FWSP). This is a federal program that provides part-time jobs for students with financial eligibility as established by the FAFSA. A student is assigned to work a specified number of hours at a campus location—typically five to ten hours per week—and is paid the current federal minimum wage for hours worked on a monthly basis. Priority date for file completion is March 15.

Workshop. This program provides part-time employment for students who do not qualify for FWSP. Full-time students with special skills are eligible for employment on a first-come-first-served basis until funds have been exhausted. Funds are very limited, and the priority date for file completion is March 15

Off-Campus Employment. With a population of 80,000 in the metropolitan area, Jackson offers a variety of employment opportunities for college students. For information contact the Placement Office at Lambuth.

Other Federal Programs

Veterans Education Benefits. Lambuth participates in all Veterans Programs. Please consult the nearest Department of Veterans Affairs to determine your eligibility for these programs.

1. Students receiving enrollment verification for Veteran's Benefits will have that verification terminated after failing to meet the minimum standards for good academic standing (academic probation) for two consecutive terms unless mitigating circumstances occur as determined by appropriate Lambuth officials.
2. Students receiving Veteran's Benefits for taking courses at Lambuth on the pass-fail option will not receive those benefits for such courses that are failed.
3. Students receiving enrollment verification for Veteran's Benefits will have that verification terminated at Lambuth for one regular semester, including summer after a Spring term, following a failed second attempt at ENG 0063 (Writing Skills) should such students be placed in this course. Upon having enrollment verification reinstated after a semester's hiatus, students failing this course after a third attempt will not receive such verification for a period of one full academic year.
4. Students receiving Veteran's Benefits at Lambuth may not receive those benefits for repeating courses previously passed.
5. Veteran's Benefits are considered a resource. If students receiving these benefits are also receiving Federal students aid, these benefits will affect that aid pursuant to Federal regulations.

Student Development

Religious Life

The University encourages students to understand their academic and social life as a reflection of their religious faith. As an institution of the United Methodist Church, Lambuth University provides an opportunity for students to understand the importance of their faith and actions. Under the direction of the Vice President for Church Relations and the Assistant Chaplain Intern, students attend worship services on and off-campus and plan other activities which reflect their religious interests and concerns.

The Campus Congregation is open to all students. Short courses in religion, a clown ministry, films, study groups, and Kappa Delta Kappa, an organization for those interested in a church-related vocation, are part of the Campus Congregation's activities. Programs with a special focus are also offered for the entire community.

Student Organization Space (S.O.S.)

The Student Organization Space (S.O.S. Room) houses the offices for the Student Government Association and the Student Activities Committee. The S.O.S. Room is open to all student organizations to use for meetings, making promotional materials and other student organizational resources. Meeting times must be scheduled through the Office of Student Development. The S.O.S. Room is located on the lower level of the Wilder Student Union.

Student Government Association

Student self-government plays a significant role in shaping the quality of student life at Lambuth University. The Student Government Association represents all segments of the student body and is organized to help formulate and voice student opinion regarding all university policies and to allocate its organization fund to appropriate committees. Participation in this important organization is open to all students through voting in SGA elections, attending Senate meetings, volunteering for one of the many SGA committees, and sharing questions and concerns about issues.

Student Activities Committee

The Student Activities Committee is responsible for creating and implementing a comprehensive student activities program for the entire campus. This committee works with various agents and artists throughout the United States to bring comedians, musical groups, hypnotists, jugglers, and bands to our campus. SAC is a member of the National Association of Campus Activities (NACA), and several members attend the regional conference every year to find new talent to bring to campus. The committee plans a variety of activities to involve students in social, cultural, and recreational opportunities. SAC is responsible for the planning and coordination of all the activities during Lambuth's annual Winterfest and Spring Fling weeks. The committee also sponsors other events such as student acoustical jam sessions, a movie-on-the-green film series, bowling nights, and quad picnics and barbecues. Furthermore, SAC remains available for service and support to other organizations and the administration such as providing entertainment during Family Day, Homecoming, and Alumni events.

Honor Societies

Alpha Psi Omega. The Chi Sigma Cast is the on-campus affiliate of this national honorary fraternity which promotes excellence in theatre and fellowship among collegiate theatrians. A merit organization, Alpha Psi Omega requires membership to be earned on a point system. Points may be earned in performing, production, and management.

Gamma Beta Phi is an organization that affords college students an opportunity for fraternal association in academic endeavor. Eligibility, which may occur in the freshman year, requires a 3.5 grade point average and, thereafter, requires a 3.25 grade point average.

Omicron Phi Tau is a local honor fraternity organized in 1930. The purpose of this organization is to promote scholarship in the University and to recognize those who have achieved a high degree of scholarship. Eligibility, which occurs in the second term of the junior year and in the senior year, requires an academic average of 3.5. The requirements are in line with national honor fraternities.

Order of Omega is a national leadership honor society for members of Greek-letter social organizations. Membership may be extended to student, faculty, alumni, and honorary individuals. The Pi Theta chapter of Order of Omega requires a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.8 and a semester grade point average above the cumulative all-Greek grade point average. The objective of Order of Omega is: 1) to recognize those students who have attained a high standard of leadership in inter-Greek activities; 2) to bring together the most representative fraternity and sorority members; and 3) to bring together members of the faculty, alumni, and student members of the institution's fraternities and sororities on a basis of mutual interest, understanding and helpfulness.

Departmental and Special Interest Groups

Departmental Clubs and extracurricular organizations are organized for the purpose of promoting, conserving, and strengthening interest within particular fields.

Best Buddies matches college students with mentally handicapped "buddies." The new friends go to the movies and restaurants, plan pizza parties, or attend football and basketball games. As a national organization, the Lambuth University chapter of the Best Buddies program is supported by a local agency for the mentally handicapped.

Biology Club. The purpose of the Biology Club is to stimulate students who are interested in the field of Biology to become involved in activities that will better prepare them for their career goals. This purpose will be accomplished by providing opportunities to the students that will inform them and make them better candidates for the career of their choice.

Black Student Union. The purpose of the organization is to initiate reforms where needed in obliterating discriminating practices, to introduce and display by individual and/or group efforts various aspects of Afro-American culture and history, and to promote more unity and awareness to issues affecting all Black people.

International Students Association. This is an organization of foreign and American students interested in foreign countries. ISA is open to all students from different countries and cultures, as well as American students with an interest in and knowledge of foreign cultures. The club sponsors various activities to encourage international life on campus, such as pumpkin-carving contests, participation in Homecoming, and other student clubs' activities. The club also holds a yearly banquet and International Day. ISA students are available as speakers for community activities and events.

National Student Speech Language Hearing Association is the national organization for master's candidates and undergraduate students interested in the study of normal and disordered human communication behavior. NSSLA membership is open to all undergraduate and graduate speech pathology and audiology students.

Phi Sigma Eta is a local service sorority open to all Christian women at Lambuth. The purpose of the organization is to help members to grow in their relationships with Christ while developing close relationships with other Christian women and to promote leadership and service among the women at Lambuth. A genuine interest in Christian principles and growth is the primary consideration for membership.

Psi Chi. This is the national honor society in psychology designed to recognize outstanding psychology majors and minors and provide them with unique professional opportunities. Membership is by invitation based on academic performance. Psi Chi meets in partnership with the Psychology club.

Psychology Club. The Lambuth Psychology Club is designed to help psychology students achieve their professional goals by focusing on professional development and service. The club works in partnership with the Boys and Girls Club of Jackson combining social service with professional development. The Psychology Club takes steps to explore, develop, and achieve career goals through activities such as field trips to psychology-related job sites, meetings with guest psychologists, and coordination of the West Tennessee Psychological Conference.

Sociology Club. The Sociology Club is interested in the growth and development of sociological inquiry. It is dedicated to the investigation of humankind for the purpose of service. It sponsors opportunities for scholarship, fellowship and service. The Sociology Club is open to anyone with an interest in sociology.

Student Chapter of the American Society of Interior Designers is a student professional chapter of International A.S.I.D. open to both interior design majors and interested students at large.

Student National Education Association. The Ruth Marr Chapter of the Student National Education Association is composed of students interested in becoming teachers. Local membership provides membership in the National Education Association and the Tennessee Education Association.

Greek Organizations

The Panhellenic Council. There are local chapters of three traditionally white national sororities on campus—Alpha Omicron Pi, Phi Mu, and Alpha Gamma Delta—which work together in a Panhellenic Council. They work to promote good relations and greater unity among the women's Greek groups, and they establish and administer rules for rush and other rules applicable to the sororities. Each sorority is represented on the Panhellenic Council by two delegates from their respective organizations. In addition, one traditional African-American national sorority—Alpha Kappa Alpha—has a local undergraduate chapter which is active on campus.

Interfraternity Council. The three men's groups—Kappa Alpha, Kappa Sigma, and Sigma Phi Epsilon—are governed by an Interfraternity Council, which is composed of chapter presidents, fraternity representatives, and an advisor from the Student Development Office. IFC oversees fraternity activities including the rush program educational programs, and all-campus events. IFC also sponsors the Fraternity Award of Excellence program and several Greek issues programs throughout the year. IFC seeks to promote cooperation and understanding among the fraternities and to educate the Greek community on issues facing Greeks nationally.

Publications

Lambuth University has four major publications. The Vision is the student newspaper published by a student staff and supervised by the Office of Student Development. The Lantern is the University annual managed by the administration and the students. The Lambuth Magazine, a University publication, is published four times annually. It presents news of all facets of college life (administrative, alumni, faculty and students) and is mailed to over 7,000 alumni and other friends of the University. The Coffeehouse Papers is the university publication for creative works including poetry, short stories, drawings, and other media. It is published once a year by a student staff.

Athletics

All students are encouraged to participate in some form of athletics. The University recognizes the physical, mental, and social benefits learned in athletic competition and offers opportunities toward that end. Intramural sports include basketball, softball, flag-tag football, volleyball, and bowling.

As a member of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics, Lambuth's varsity teams compete in men's football, basketball, baseball, tennis, soccer, golf, track, and women's volleyball, basketball, tennis, soccer, softball, and track. The University is also a member of the Mid-South Conference.

Residential Living

Regulations for On-Campus Living. The University has five residence halls. Full-time students who do not live with their parents in Jackson or the immediate vicinity are required to live in the residence halls and to take their meals in the Williamson Dining Hall. Special permission may be granted for students to live with near relatives in Jackson. This requirement does not apply in the case of married students. Room assignments are made in the Office of Student Development by the Director of Residential Living.

Policies. All students who live in residence halls must pay a $100.00 deposit which is applied to room charges in the next academic term. All students are charged a $100.00 key/breakage deposit. The deposit is refundable if the keys are returned, there is no damage or cleaning charge, and the student has no outstanding account balance. Students are responsible for abiding by policies set forth by the residence halls. Residence halls are closed during holiday periods observed by the University.

Guests. Guests who occupy a residence hall guest room will be charged $12.00 plus tax per person per night. A guest may share a student's room at no cost provided the Resident Director is notified immediately upon arrival in the residence hall. Guests are limited to a three night stay and are subject to the approval of the resident's roommate.

Non-resident Students. Lambuth serves annually many students whose homes are in Jackson and vicinity. Facilities are provided for day students in the classrooms, laboratories, library, recreation and athletic center, and dining hall. In the dining hall meals are furnished as required and charges are made by meal accordingly.

Counseling and Health Services

Career Development Center. The Career Development Center (CDC) is located on the lower level of Wilder Student Union across from the mailroom. It features a four-year developmental program for all students freshman through seniors. Students receive assistance with self-assessment, choosing a major, internships, part-time jobs and full-time employment. Seminars are offered for resume preparation, job skills training and graduate school preparation.

Freshman Faculty-Peer Advisor System. Each freshman is a part of an advising team comprised of a faculty member and an upper class student. These teams work with students in an effort to promote adjustment to University life and assure academic and social success. Upon completion of the freshman year, students are invited to select advisors in the major area of study to assist in academic advising for the remaining years at Lambuth.

Student Counseling Service. Lambuth University provides individual and group counseling services for all students. Personnel in the Office of Student Development are all able to assist students with their counseling needs. Through the Learning Enrichment Center diagnostic tests may be administered to aid in academic counseling. Tutorial services are available through the Learning Enrichment Center.

Student Health Service. Lambuth encourages each student to safeguard his or her health and promote his or her emotional and physical development. Through its Department of Health and Physical Education, its intramural sports program, its recreational facilities, and its care of the student in case of illness, the University offers opportunity toward this end. Services are provided for students with minor ailments. In case of illness requiring the attention of physician, surgeon, or other specialist or the care of a hospital, such service is available at the student's expense. Each student is expected to purchase health and accident insurance unless proof is submitted that the student is covered by a family, group, or other policy for the current college year. International students are required to submit proof of health and accident insurance coverage to the international student advisor each year of enrollment.

Records

A student directory is printed each semester for use by Lambuth faculty, administration, staff, and University-approved campus organizations. Lambuth University considers as directory information each student's name, sex, home address, telephone number, dates of attendance, class, previous institutions attended, major and minor fields of study, awards, honors, degrees sought or awarded, date of graduation, athletic information, participation in officially recognized sports and activities, religious preference, faculty advisor, name of parents, guardians or spouse, date and place of birth, weight and height of athletic team members, photograph, and country and citizenship. Students who prefer that this information about them not be released should notify the Registrar within one week of their official registration.

Transcripts. Academic records are kept in the Office of the Registrar. A student is entitled to one copy of his or her record without charge, and additional copies are $2.00 each. All requests for transcripts must be in writing. No transcript will be issued for any student or former student whose financial accounts are delinquent. Lambuth will accept fax requests for transcripts and will fax transcripts in exceptional circumstances. The charge for this service is $5.00.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act

Lambuth University complies with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. This act insures that students have the right to inspect and challenge the accuracy of their educational records and that these records are private and subject to certain protections. Students are notified annually of these protections and any procedures pertinent to their application through a detailed description in the Student Handbook.

Disability Policy

Lambuth University is an independent, non-profit, undergraduate, church-related institution which does not discriminate on the basis of disability in the provision of educational services. Although Lambuth does not provide separate programs for students with disabilities, accommodations for class presentation, evaluation, and access will be determined on a case-by-case basis once the student has disclosed a disability and appropriate documentation supporting the request for the accommodations has been provided to the University.

All students, regardless of disability, must meet the same admission and graduation requirements.

Student Right To Know Act

In compliance with the Student Right To Know Act from the Federal Department of Education, Lambuth University makes available to student and potential students upon request appropriate information for review in the Office of the Registrar located in Jones Hall. This information relates to Lambuth's graduation rates and athletically-related student aid as required by the Act.

In compliance with the State of Tennessee and the Student Right To Know Act, Senate Bill Number 1406 entitled "College and University Security Information Act," Lambuth University makes appropriate records available for review in the office of the Director of Public Safety located in the Wilder Student Union.

Solomon Amendment

The Federal Government now requires that certain items of directory information on current students be made available to recruiters for the Armed Services of the United States at their request. Those items are: name, address, sex, year of birth, race, phone number, classification, major, previous institutions attended, degrees awarded, and graduation dates or projected graduation dates.

Good Standing

In general, a student is entitled to the status "good standing" at Lambuth University if he or she is eligible, both academically and socially, to continue at the University while attending terms and is eligible to return when absent between terms. This status includes terms when a student is placed on academic and/or social probation and does not preclude action that may be taken as a result of those probations.

The Catalog

This Catalog contains information current at the time of its printing. All such information is under constant evaluation and revision by Lambuth, and therefore, the University reserves the right to change, modify, revoke or add—without prior notice—to any and all of the University regulations, rules, requirements, policies, procedures, courses, admission standards, academic programs and majors, faculty, staff, administration, fees, tuition and charges, as well as to other matters of the university. Consequently, the Lambuth Catalog is not to be regarded in any way as a contractual agreement between the student and the University. Further, the University is not responsible for errors of omission, printing, editing, publishing or distribution of this document. Reasonable efforts will be made to notify affected parties of any changes occurring before the printing of subsequent Lambuth Catalogs or of any errors. Copies of the Lambuth Catalog are available free of charge in the Office of Admissions or the Office of the Registrar.
